P.S. Remember the Zig-Zag days.

"I Am the Nation . . ."

I was born on July 4, 1776, and the Declaration of Independence is my birth certificate. The bloodline of the world runs in my veins, because I offered freedom to the oppressed. I am many things, and many people. I am the Nation.

I am 200 million people, living souls and the ghosts of millions who have lived and died for me.

I am Nathan Hale and Paul Revere. I stood at Lexington and fired the shot heard around the world. I am Washington, Jefferson and Patrick Henry. I am John Paul Jones, the Green Mountain Boys and Davy Crockett. I am Lee and Grant, and Abe Lincoln.

I remember the Alamo, the Maine and Pearl Harbor. When Freedom called, I answered and stayed until it was over, over there. I left my heroic dead in Flanders Fields, on the Rock of Corregidor, and the Black steppes of Korea.

I am the Brooklyn Bridge, the wheat lands of Kansas, the granite hills of Vermont, the potato fields of Wisconsin. I am the coalfields of the Virginias and Pennsylvania, the fertile lands of the Mid-west, The Golden Gate and the Grand Canyon. I am Independence Hall, the Monitor and the Merrimac.

I am big! I sprawl from the Atlantic to the Pacific, three million square miles throbbing with industry. I am more than five million farms. I am forest, field, mountain, desert. I am quiet villages and cities that never sleep.

You can look at me and see Ben Franklin walking down the streets of Philadelphia with his breadloaf under his arm. You can see Betsy Ross with her needle. You can see the lights of Christmas, and hear the strains of Auld Lang Syne as the calendar turns.

I am Babe Ruth and the World Series. I am 169,000 schools and colleges, and 250,000 churches where my people worship God as they like best. I am a ballot dropping in a box, the roar of a crowd at the stadium, and the voice of a choir in a cathedral. I am an editorial in a newspaper and a letter to a congressman.

I am Eli Whitney and Stephen Foster. I am Thomas Edison, Albert Einstein and Billy Graham. I am Horace Greeley, Will Rogers and the Wright Brothers. I am George Washington Carver, Daniel Webster and Jonas Salk.

I am Longfellow, Harriet Beecher Stowe, Walt Whitman and Tom Paine. I am Phillip Brooks, Billy Sunday and Bishop Quayle.

Yes, I am the Nation, and these are the things I am. I was conceived in Freedom and, God willing, in Freedom I will spend the rest of my days.

May I possess always the integrity, the courage, and the strength to keep myself unshackled, to remain a citadel of freedom and a beacon of hope to the world. This is my wish, my goal, and my prayer on this my birthday, two-hundred years after I was born.

2

"These Are the Times That Try Men's Souls . . ."

Thomas Paine

1/ Captain John Paul Jones unfurled the first Stars and Stripes over the ocean when the young nation's banner, containing thirteen stars and thirteen stripes, was hoisted aboard the Ranger.
2/ From the deck of the captured British vessel Serapis, Capt. Jones and his crew watched as the American man-of-war, Bonhomme Richard, sank in victory, September 23, 1779. With the aid of friendly powers—namely France and Holland—and the leadership of commanders like Jones, the American fleet was able to effectively combat Britain's naval supremacy in the colonies.

3/ General John Stark led the colonial forces to victory at Bennington on August 11, 1777. The victory, along with an American triumph at Saratoga on October 12 of that year brought France to the colonies' aid as an ally and was the turning point of the war.

4/ Outside of occupied Boston, colonial patriots organized themselves into a volunteer militia known as the Minutemen. On the eve of April 18, 1775, British troops numbering more than 800 were dispatched from Boston to seize colonial munitions stored at Concord. Forewarned, Paul Revere and others spread the alarm and the Redcoats were met by a determined band of Minutemen at Lexington. It was here that the famous "shot heard round the world" was fired. It is not known which side fired the first shot of that battle which marked the opening of outright hostilities and led to open war.

5/ The surrender of British troops under the command of General Charles Cornwallis at Yorktown on October 19, 1781, brought an end to all-out fighting. A few scattered skirmishes continued for over a year. However, complications of negotiation with England delayed the signing of a peace treaty for nearly two years. General George Washington, commander of colonial forces, accepted the British surrender at Yorktown and later presented the captured British flags to the Congress.

“Stand Your Ground . . .
If They Mean to Have a War,
Let It Begin Here.”

Capt. John Parker

1/ Capt. John Parker uttered those words as the colonial militia under his command prepared to meet the British troops at Lexington. Those words and the painting—Spirit of '76—exemplify the dedication and determination of the American patriots in their fight for independence. The colonies had organized to express their grievances in an effort to resolve the differences within the framework of the Empire. Several of the colonial legislatures had instructed their delegates to the Continental Congress in Philadelphia to oppose any move toward independence. The movement for independence was gaining strength and following the publication of Thomas Paine's Common Sense, which argued for colonial sovereignty, a resolution was adopted and a committee of five appointed to draft a declaration of independence.

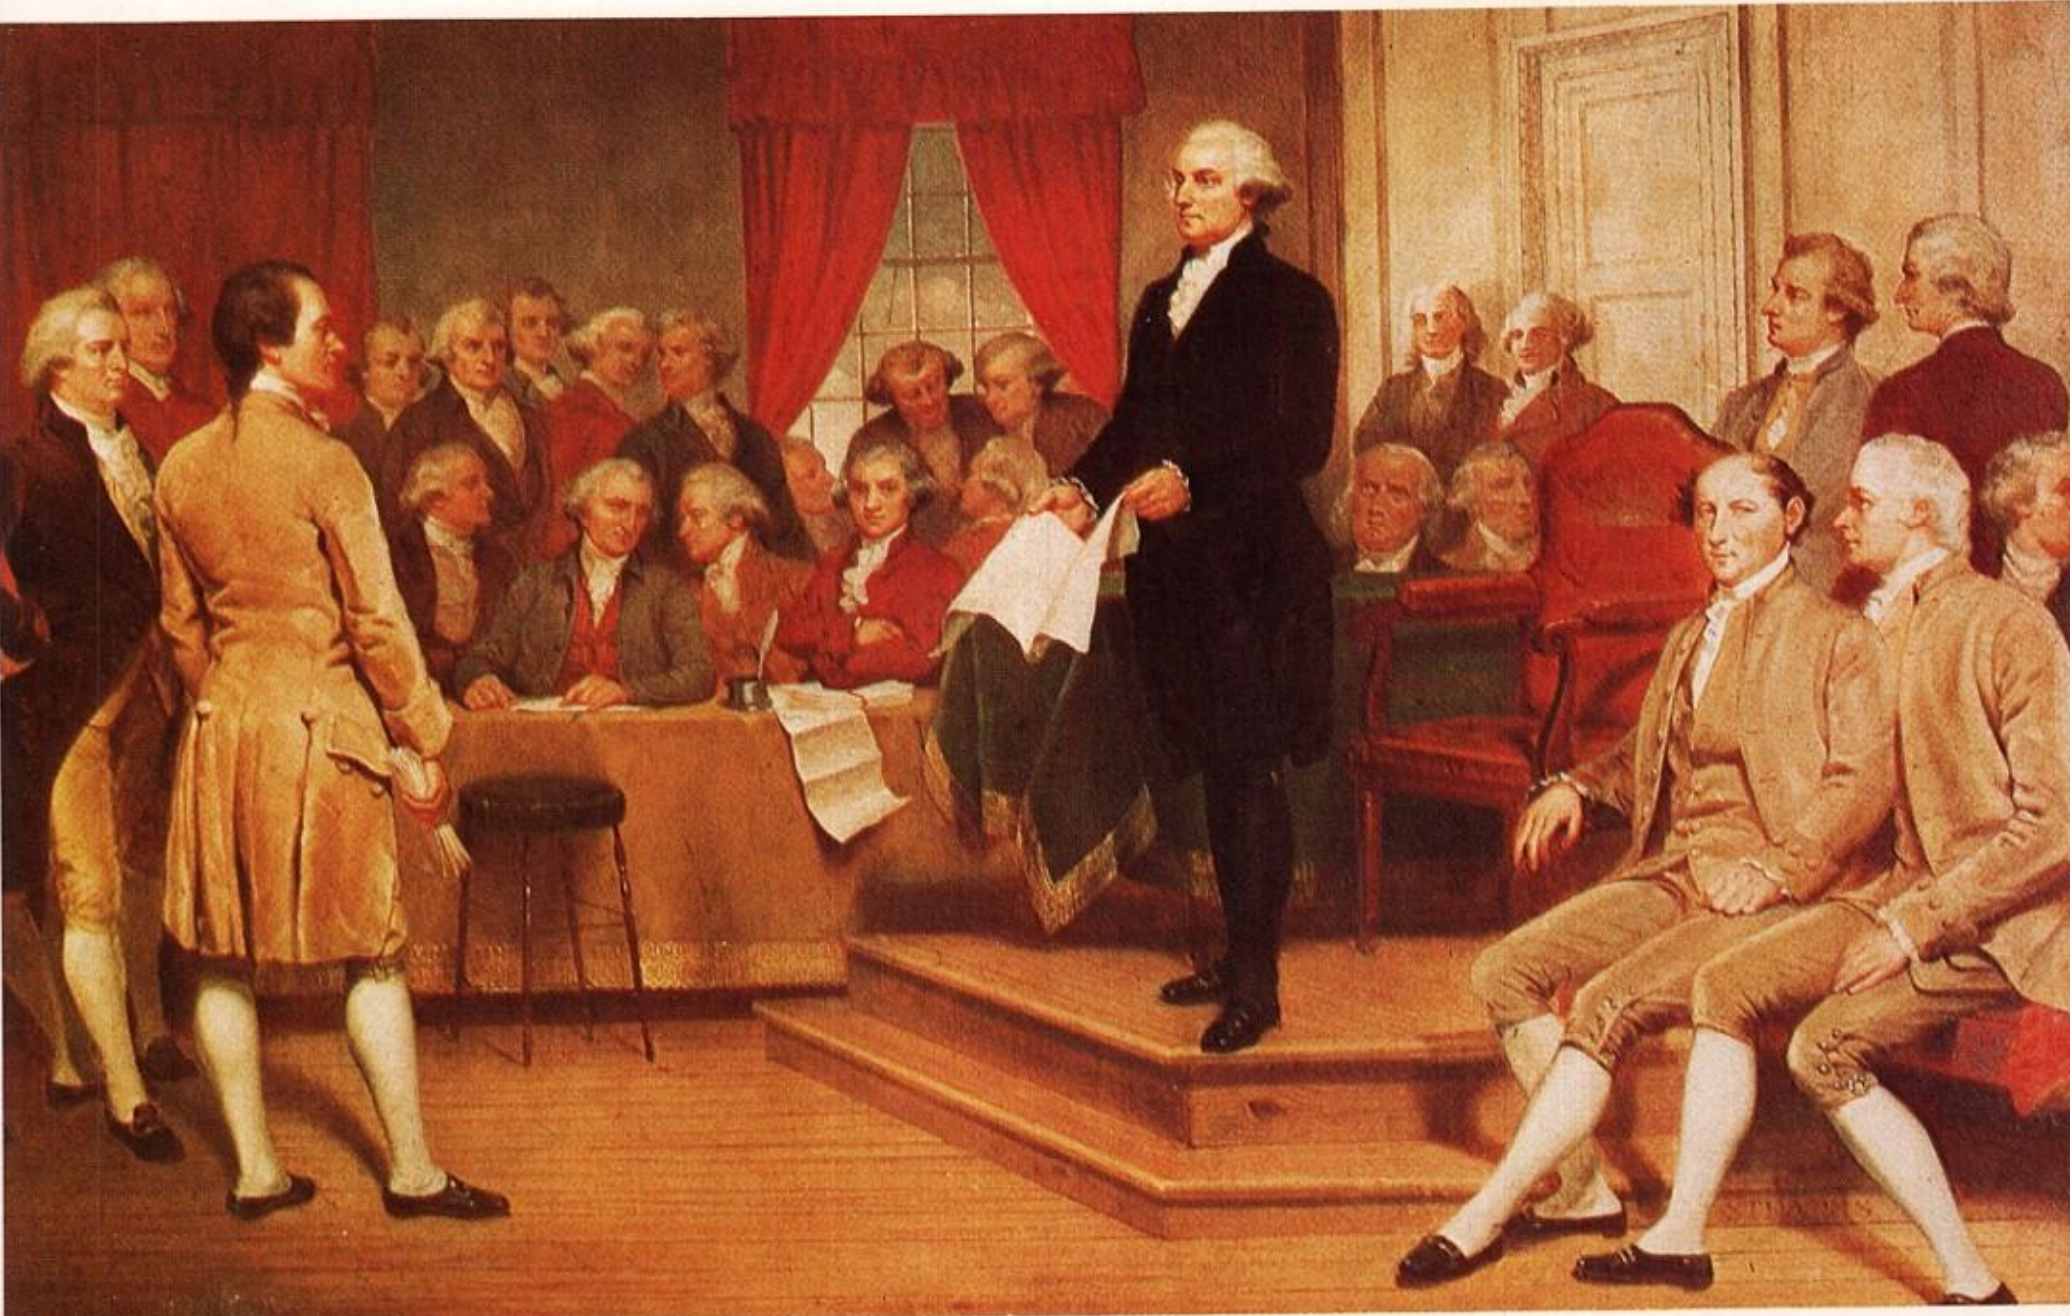

2/ General Washington, who had been appointed commander-in-chief of American forces by the Second Continental Congress, was a brilliant military strategist. It was his decision to take his Continentals across the Delaware River on Christmas night which resulted in the first major colonial victory. That victory at Trenton over Hessian mercenaries gave the ragged army renewed vigor. Supported chiefly through the printing of Continental currency, the colonial army also went through the personal fortunes of many American patriots—among them Washington, Jefferson, Richard Henry Lee and John Adams. These fortunes were donated to the cause of liberty—a cause supported by about one-third of the American population which was near 2,000,000. Another one-third remained loyal to the English crown and the remainder were apathetic. Despite many defeats, the colonies managed to keep an army in the field as a symbol of American resistance, to guarantee a negotiated rather than dictated peace.

“... Give Me Liberty or Give Me Death!”

Patrick Henry

3/ Following the victory at Yorktown, Washington refused the offer of his troops to become king and returned to Philadelphia to aid with the establishment of a permanent government for the new republic—a loose alliance of sovereign states held together by the Articles of Confederation. An envoy composed of Benjamin Franklin, John Adams and John Jay was sent to negotiate with the British. It was not until 1783 that the peace agreement, known as the Treaty of Paris, was signed, guaranteeing the sovereignty of the United States of America. The Articles of Confederation, despite many weaknesses, served to unify the states until 1787 when a special convention was held at Independence Hall in Philadelphia to revise them. The meeting was attended by fifty-five of the most-prominent men of the day. Twenty-nine of the delegates representing a majority of the states met on May 25 and decided to draft an entirely new constitution rather than amend the Articles of Confederation. The meeting then became known as the Constitutional Convention.

4/ The men who assembled for the Constitutional Convention were an illustrious group with nearly every delegate a person of prominence in his home state. A large majority favored a strong central government. After four months of debate, on September 17, 1787, the new constitution was completed. In a little more than four months, six states had ratified the new constitution. Despite the good beginning, the fight for ratification was bitter and it was not until September 13, 1788, that the necessary two-thirds majority of the states had approved the document and Congress could call for states to choose their electors and congressmen. Several of the states had ratified the constitution with the provision that it would be amended. Thus, as one of its first official acts under the new constitution, the Congress added the first ten amendments known as the Bill of Rights. Washington was unanimously elected President and a new nation was launched on a course of democracy.

Dedication

The yearbook Staff is happy to dedicate this year's book to a very worthy individual. Mrs. Marjorie Carlson. Mrs. Carlson teaches English and advises the senior class.

Born in Altoonia, Pa., she attended Baldwin High School in Baldwin, L.I. before enrolling in SUNY at Stony Brook and Penn State University. Mrs. Carlson graduated Magna Cum Laude with a B.A. from SUNY at Oswego.

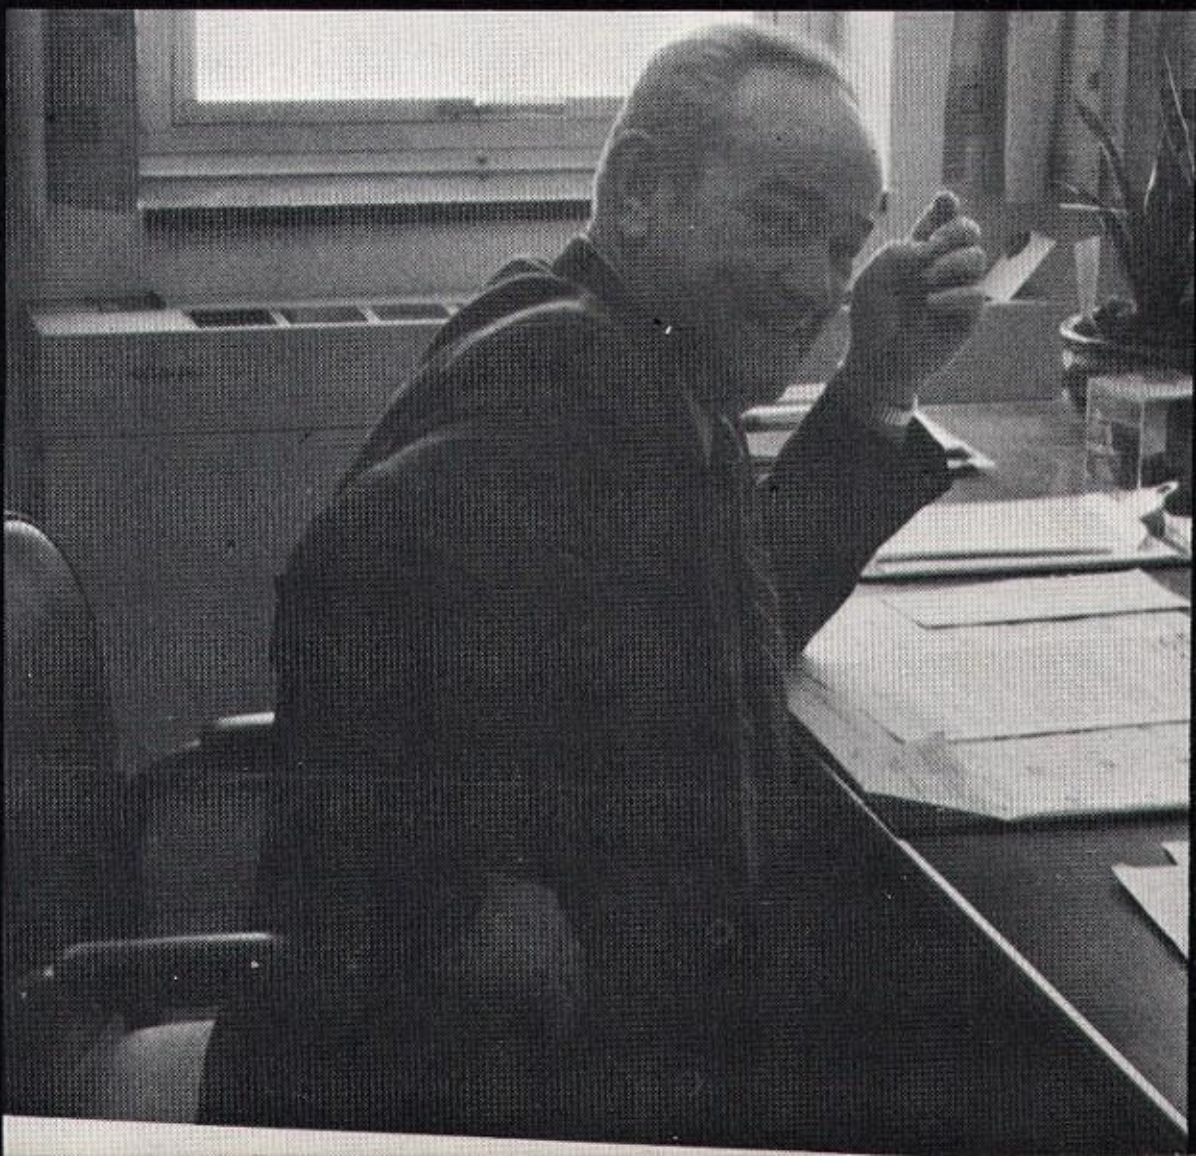

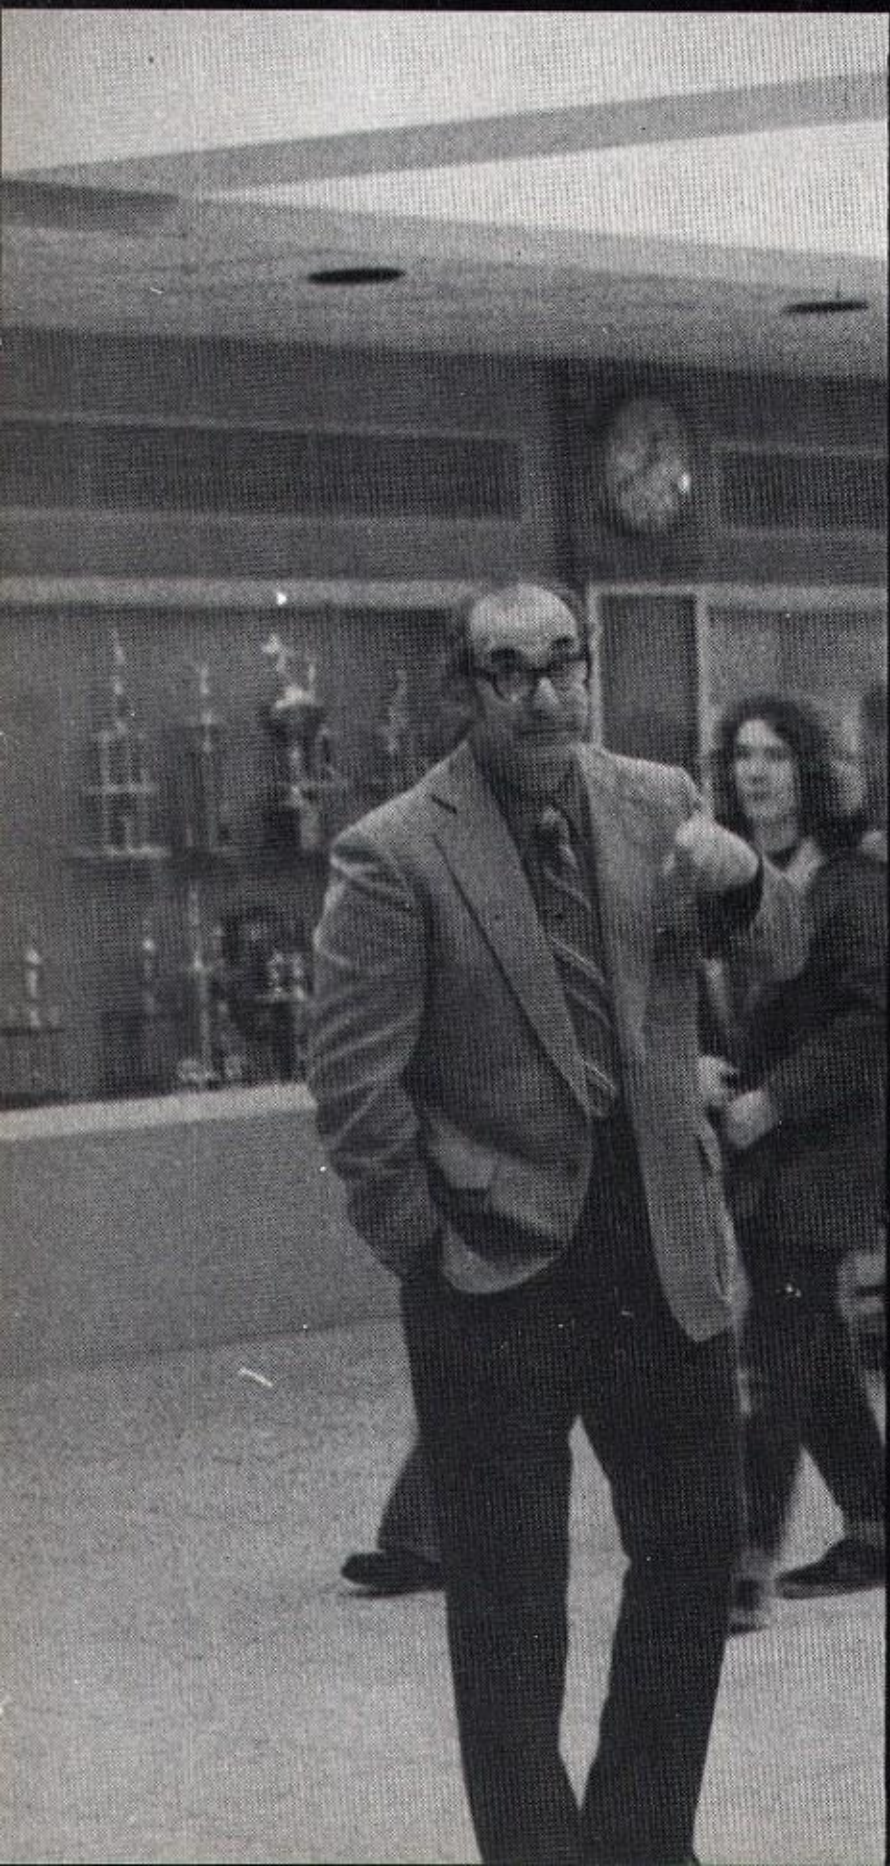

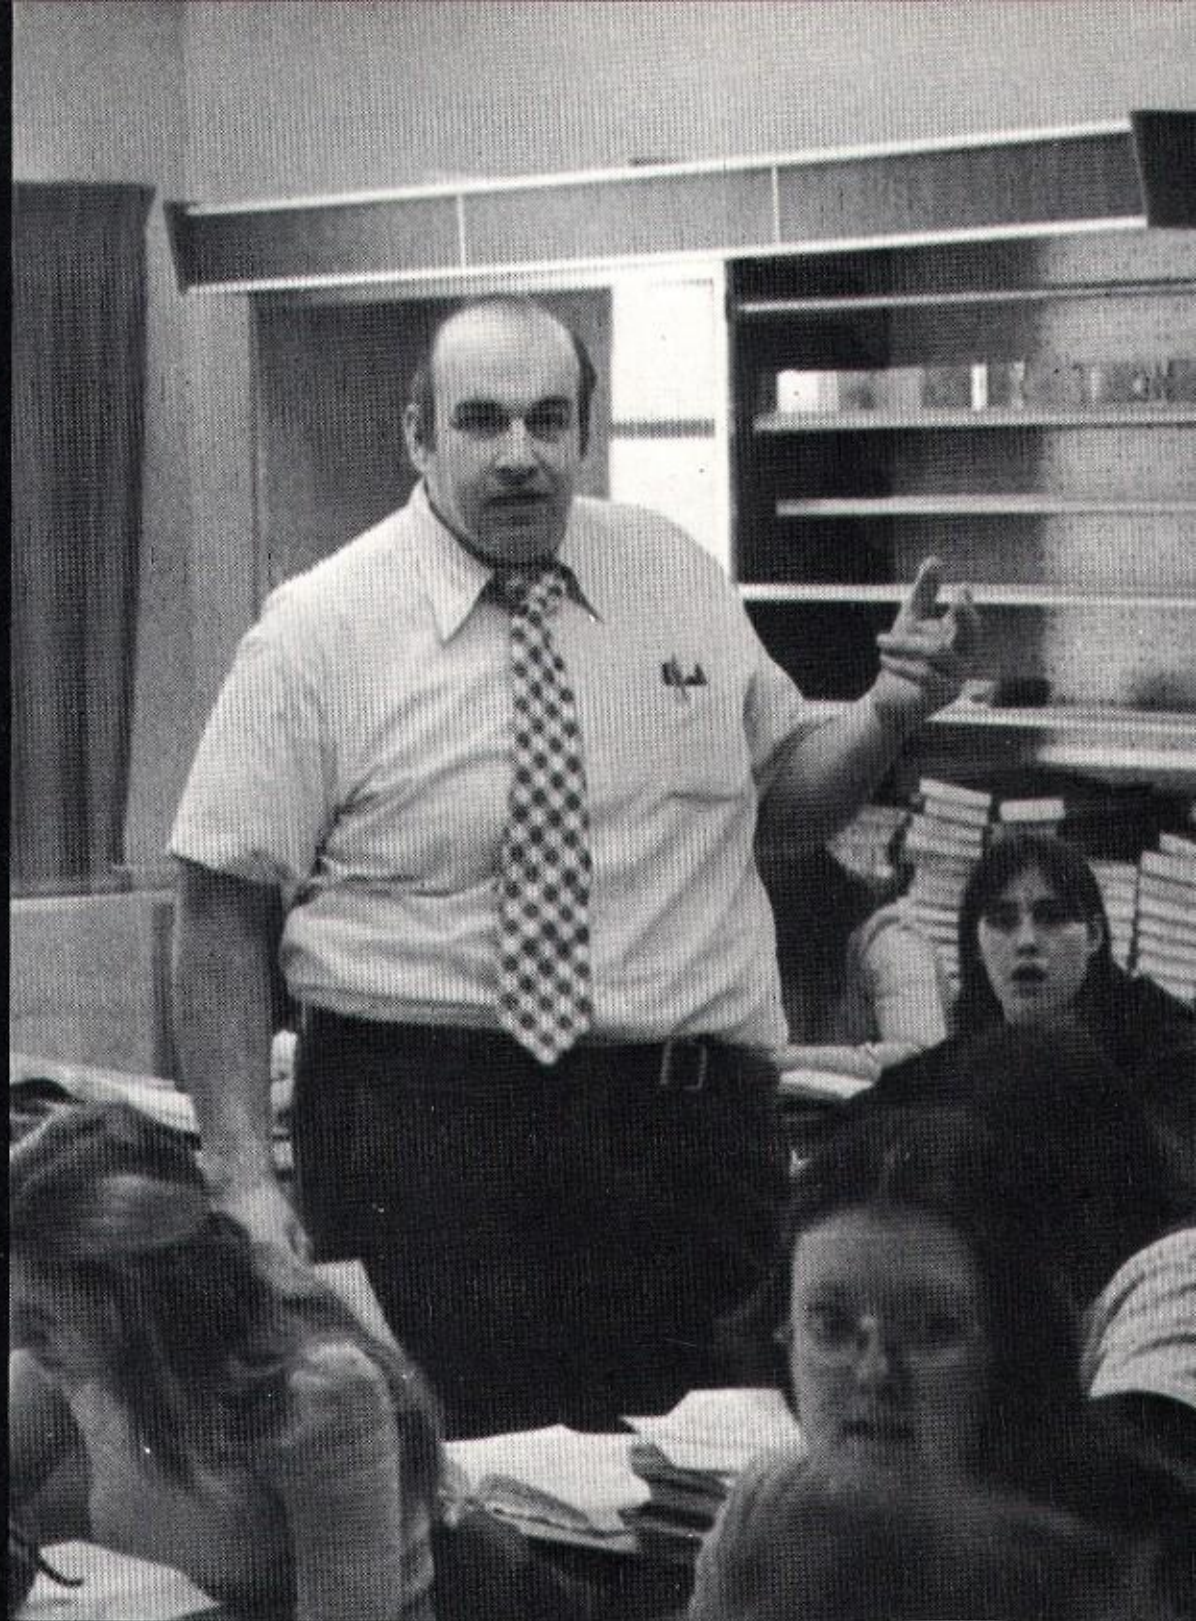

Mrs. Carlson enjoys the out-of-doors having hiked the Appalachian Trail in many states, including Mt. Washington in the Presidential Range of the White Mountains. Her other interests include flying, reading, sketching, writing, and weaving. She is a member of the Board of Directors of the United Federal Credit Union, and is an active member of the FTA.

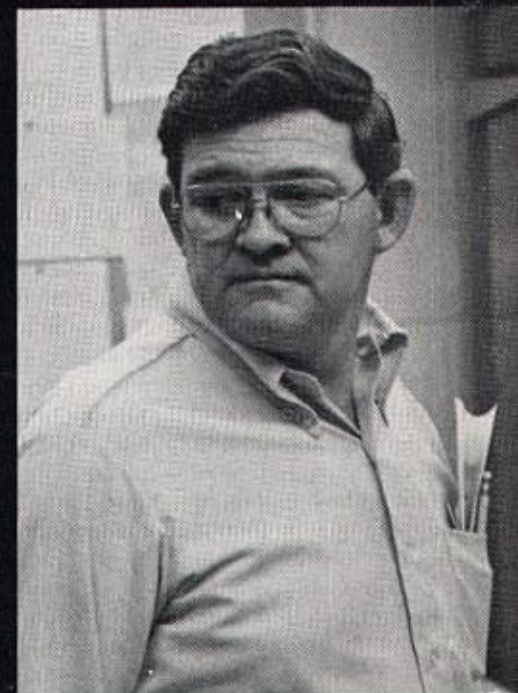

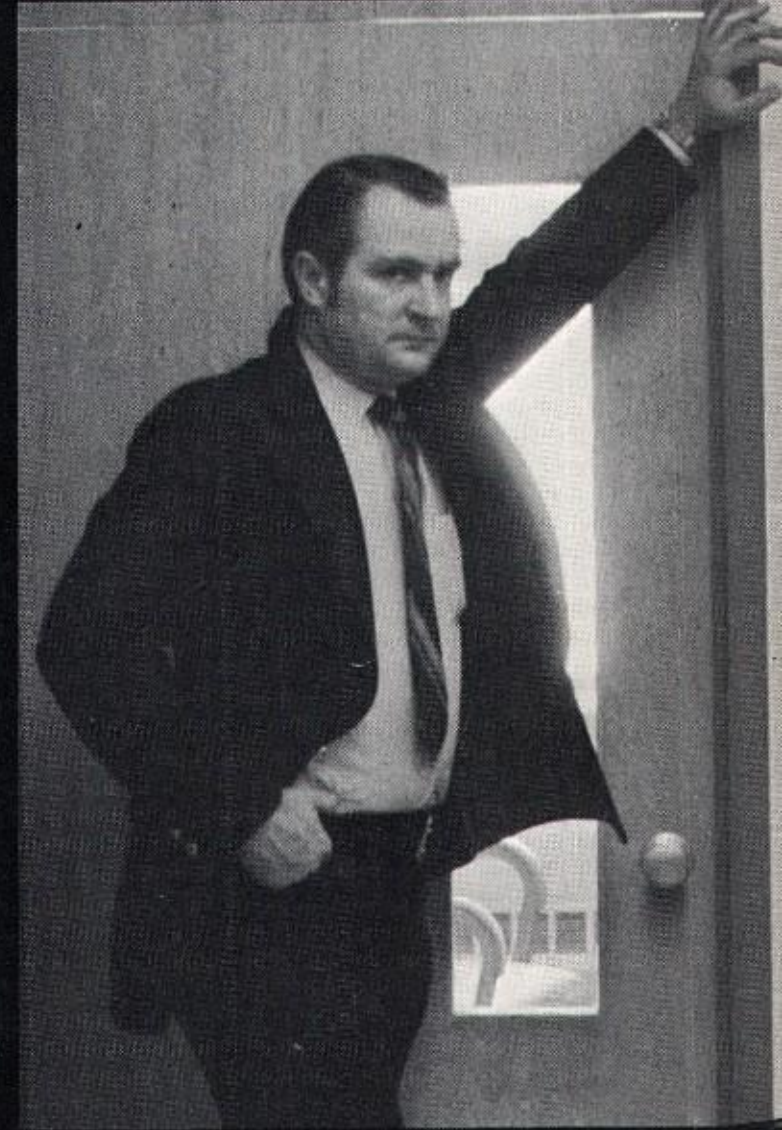

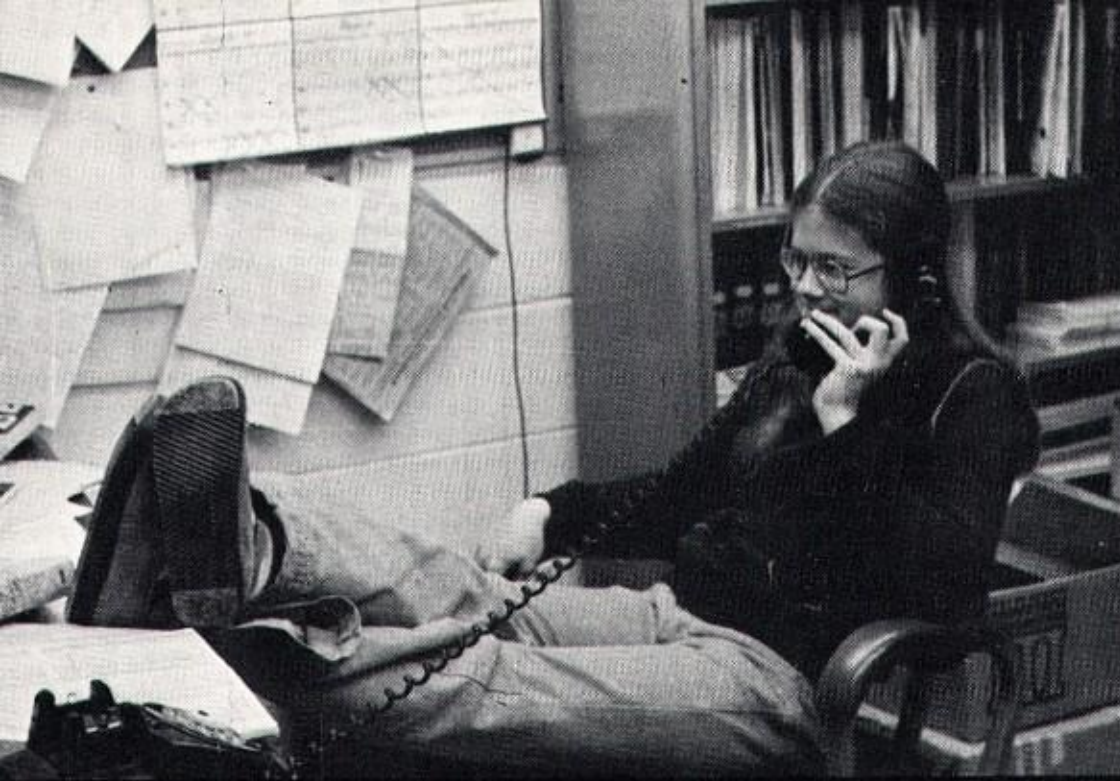

Mrs. Carlson is married to Mr. Gerald Carlson who is a retired executive of American Challenger. He was previously employed by Fairchild Aircraft, North American Rockwell, and Franklin Engine. They have two children-a daughter Chris, who is married and teaches in Rockland County, N.Y., and a son Skip, who is a Scout Executive in Atlanta, Ga.

Congratulations, Mrs. Carlson!

Mr. Glenn W. Clark / Superintendent of Schools 1959-76

Superintendent Of Schools And The Board Of Education

Child's World Only

Peep through the grass while you lay in the sun,
with its magical world of colors and smells,
and hoptoads and snakes shading under blue bells,
while civilization around you will buzz.
But you cannot hear it while you're where you are.
You're dreaming of places that aren't really far.
Where flowers are velvet and coated with sun,
they open their petals to let you climb in.
When I was but younger I journeyed this path
my eyes say the beauty that I knew would pass.
For the price of my growing, I knew I had paid,
in losing the child's awe I knew wouldn't last.
So when I am old and decrepit with age,
and children climb over my garden walls,
awaiting them there are the beauties of life,
that will awe them like I until growing up calls.

Concerned friend

I can't ask you to make a choice,
because you already have.
I can't ask you to open your eyes,
because it was your choice to close them.
I can't ask you to accept reality,
because by now you're immune to it.
I no longer watch your progress.
for as your friend, it hurts too much.

Shakespeare Makes Me Cry

Daryl Wiltsie

In this world of cruel and scaley things
No one dare guess what tomorrow brings
And everyone claws at the nearest heart
tearing and slashing their sould apart
Everyday they watch me die
But only Shakespeare makes me cry.

Play with my mind, world, and tossle my brain
Break my heart, apply your stain
Laugh and jeer at what you see
Nothing you do will bother me
Everyday I watch you die
But only Shakespeare makes me cry.

Use your iron fists of hate
World, you alone decide my fate
You'll never hear me beg from you
So, work your evil 'till you're through Everyday I hear you die
But only Shakespeare makes me cry.

Here - you've overcome me now
Yet I feel little pain somehow
I am rock, your assaults in vain
My soul, my mind, you'll never reign
You stood in victory while I cried
But — only because William Shakespeare died.

A Collection Of Four Poems Collectively Called: Memories Of Earth

Alp Lilies

When I first came across them,
they reminded me of twinkling white stars on a clear balmy night.
Minute in size, they resembled lilies of the valley-
dabbled with specks of soft brown.
They danced upon long green threads-
like daffodils in the breeze,
They were the fruits of the Alpine Air-Fresh. Pure.

Carousel Living

Carousel living - that's what we call it,
that's what life is all about.
Live for the present, tomorrow is but a myth;
live for the joys of today.
A carefree existence; celestial delights-
dancing before us, spinning around!
Our disposal-all society knows the answers
to all of earth's problems,
so please, don't worry your head.
If you don't like the bother, "just throw it away!"
But what will become of us when it all stops turning?
What will happen when the music fades away?

Epilogue

There was a living planet in an otherwise dead
solar system.
Legends brag of how life once flourished there,
but to look at it now, it's apparent that life could not exist there.
They say the people became dissatisfied with its vast beauty, and erected concrete cities; which were bathed by dirt laden skies.
Jealousies arose among the race that inhabited that great ball, and slowly they poisoned themselves until it became what it is now, Insignificant. DEAD.

Life

The beautiful petals
reached forward and enfolded the young bee,
but unlike the flower,
the bee could not remain rooted,
so eventually the bee left,
taking part of the flower's insides,
and left the flower
along once again.

Celebration And Praise

This far away abode-no one knows of it but me.
Fields of green grass and clover; animals
running free.
Life is a constant renewal; replenished and refreshed each dawn.
Praise to the master artist,
who designed this pretty picture so well-
so minutely balanced, so pleasing to the eye.

Last Chance

Majestically rolling, 'cross seas of green and grey Traveling with Mercury, yet gentle as the breeze
Winding the stages of eternity back to days of remembered joy
Days of regal dominion over a sea of grass, untouched
by those false implements of construction,
the human hand.
Rolling body, haunces high, rippling
glaze of silver-slick.
Swish of powerful mesh of tail
Softened plush of pounding feet
As the last of those legendary wild Western Stallions makes a last rush for freedom from a state of no escape.

It was the end of my world.
All hopes of happiness had faded,
as a dream that is so beautiful,
passing like a cool summer breeze.

You were my summer love,
unique from all of the others.
You came to me as quickly and as softly as a winter's blanket of new-fallen snow.

You created me,
enveloped me with security
and an immediate sense of well-being.

You were my future, my past,
my everything.
All of my hopes and dreams
were reborn,
as if by some mystical, magical reincarnation
of a freshly blossomed flower.

And like a flower
did our relationship bloom to it's fullest beauty.

And like a flower,
when the cold north winds bring
the death of summer and replace it with the sirs of autumn did our love fold and die.

An Artist's Viewpoint

We are all just pieces
to an intricate sculpture of life.
We arrive, we grow, we shed our light,
whether it is dull or bright.

Some of us pull away,
but never really become,
for the surrounding pieces hold us back,
leaving our accomplishments limited,
and although we'd be better to break away
and go our separate ways,
not many of us see that,
for we've been this way for too long.

But the few that do,
are rarely noticed,
for they are just one piece,
of too many more.

I stand among, but am alone,
The dreams I dream are just my own,
the few that pass don't notice me,
the good I hold they'll never see.

The future laughs, the past just cries,
I live a fool, a fool I'll die.

Don't preach me your god
cause I don't believe,
That there's such a thing,
there never will be.
Don't feed me beliefs
of the past that's now gone.
I want the future,
cause what's done is done.
Don't ask me to love
the things that you might.
You're asking the limits,
of what's wrong and right.
Don't tell me to fear
your dangers of life.
Cause I'm not afraid,
to live or to die.
Don't ask me to wear
the mold that you've made.
Cause I'll turn forever,
and walk away.

"As each day comes to an end, into our hearts go memories of the day that has just been."

Debbie Hamer

Seek to find the best life has to offer; Look deep into the harsh eyes of the world. Goodness is often disguised . . . locked within the black darkness which envelopes the earth. The universe has much to reveal; find the key to happiness . . . bliss is within grasp.

Wendy Stone

Something Special, something real,
something 'bout you makes me feel,
that time will come,
and time will pass,
till you and I,
will know at last,
the things that we are meant to be,
and in the end we both might see,
that all the times we shared as friends,
we'll both be lonely in the end,
so if we go our separate ways,
and let the years slip by like days,
there'll come a time when you will see,
the person at your door is me.

Let me run away from responsibility.
and let me run,
from love and hate as I choose,
and let me hide in fear,
yet be aware,
of everything that is beautiful and pure and good,
and love it with awe,
for I'm still a child.

I cannot learn to decide . . .
if you make my decisions,
I cannot learn to be myself . . .
if you tell me what to be,
Let me choose what I must learn.

Track 75

The word in practice was TRACK this year,
and once practice started nothing else was given a care.
All the girls had one thing on their mind,
that was to do their best and work for time.

The first month of practice in that little gym,
was like we were being punished for some sort of sin.
We did our best with what we had,
and most of the time we didn't do bad.

Then the day came we were out on the track,
and found shortness of breath had suddenly come back.
But finally we got used to running with air,
and could run all day without a single care.

Then there was Coach Blair who was always there,
when we felt like quitting and just didn't care.
And then Coach Brown who was really no trouble,
when someone would win she would bubble.

The girls went into a meet with confidence on their side,
and they all had pride they just couldn't hide.
Win or lose we never were down,
even though sometimes there may have been a frown.

Our spirits this year was unusually high,
I think that's what may have got us by.
Sometimes the bus was too full of pep,
and I think coach would have rather had us slept.

Then to boost our spirits was Natoli at the line,
with a kiss and a hug and to tell us our time.
At home there was Carl who was lots of fun,
and was really a dud when it came to working the gun.

The people of Fulton started to believe in Track,
and publicity was the only thing we lacked.
If only the papers would print our story,
they'd find out about the track team's glory.

In 75 we did our best,
and proved to be as good as the rest.
We didn't do bad with 6-4,
and next year we'll win even more!

Kim Smith

On your journey down the passageways of life, take time to hear the tales of others; Perhaps they have lived something of great value and beneficiary to you.

Hear with an open mind the criticisms of friends and strangers; for in their dull ignorance or unterminating knowledge, they tend to notice facets of you that you alone would not.

Enjoy individuality; you need not be a duplicate to be accepted into the cycle of life. Conformity is a terrible waste of creativity.

Above all, be gentle and kind, both to yourself and others.
Be at peace with yourself, for it is often the only consolation at hand.

Wendy Stone

I hate doing nothing
I hate very little
but I find time to sulk
which I hate to do.

I want to go away,
and go away far,
find something new-
find something new in me,
find someone new I can make happy.
Sometimes I wish I was.
I really wish I'll be
and stay.

On Destination

What of all time is this piece that we live,
to waddle and squabble, to crawl and draw
and endless drain of nohow, nothing for those then to continue.

Where meaning, who's screening the purpose of this and the endpoint for millions of billions of no ones headed no where by no way with nothing to say or give away.

Cro-Magnon? Thru those then to we here, Chivalric,
dominic, dictoric, Attila, Caesar, Hitler and George Never did leave any answers to what place
to where now, to how come, to why?

Must by they weren't all those billions
those masses, not clever, not knowing,
to where they were going—left nothing to work on or even a hint as to how us here now are to face it.

All time has now passes and that vast unapproachable,
even untangible, not very understandable haven of heaven called space in not conquered and not even death has been cracked.

How, now are we to perceive, believe, that no one has never bothered to leave
The answers to those most inquired questions, where to, how come, and

by what means and why are we placed here
to go where, — and now as we sit here, never to know just those questions, unanswered, to keep those inquisitive, nosey, aggressives from directing themselves the right way.

The answers are there but they're drifting away
On their long, mind bending, death sending ascension to the base of my mind
which is blowing, not knowing.

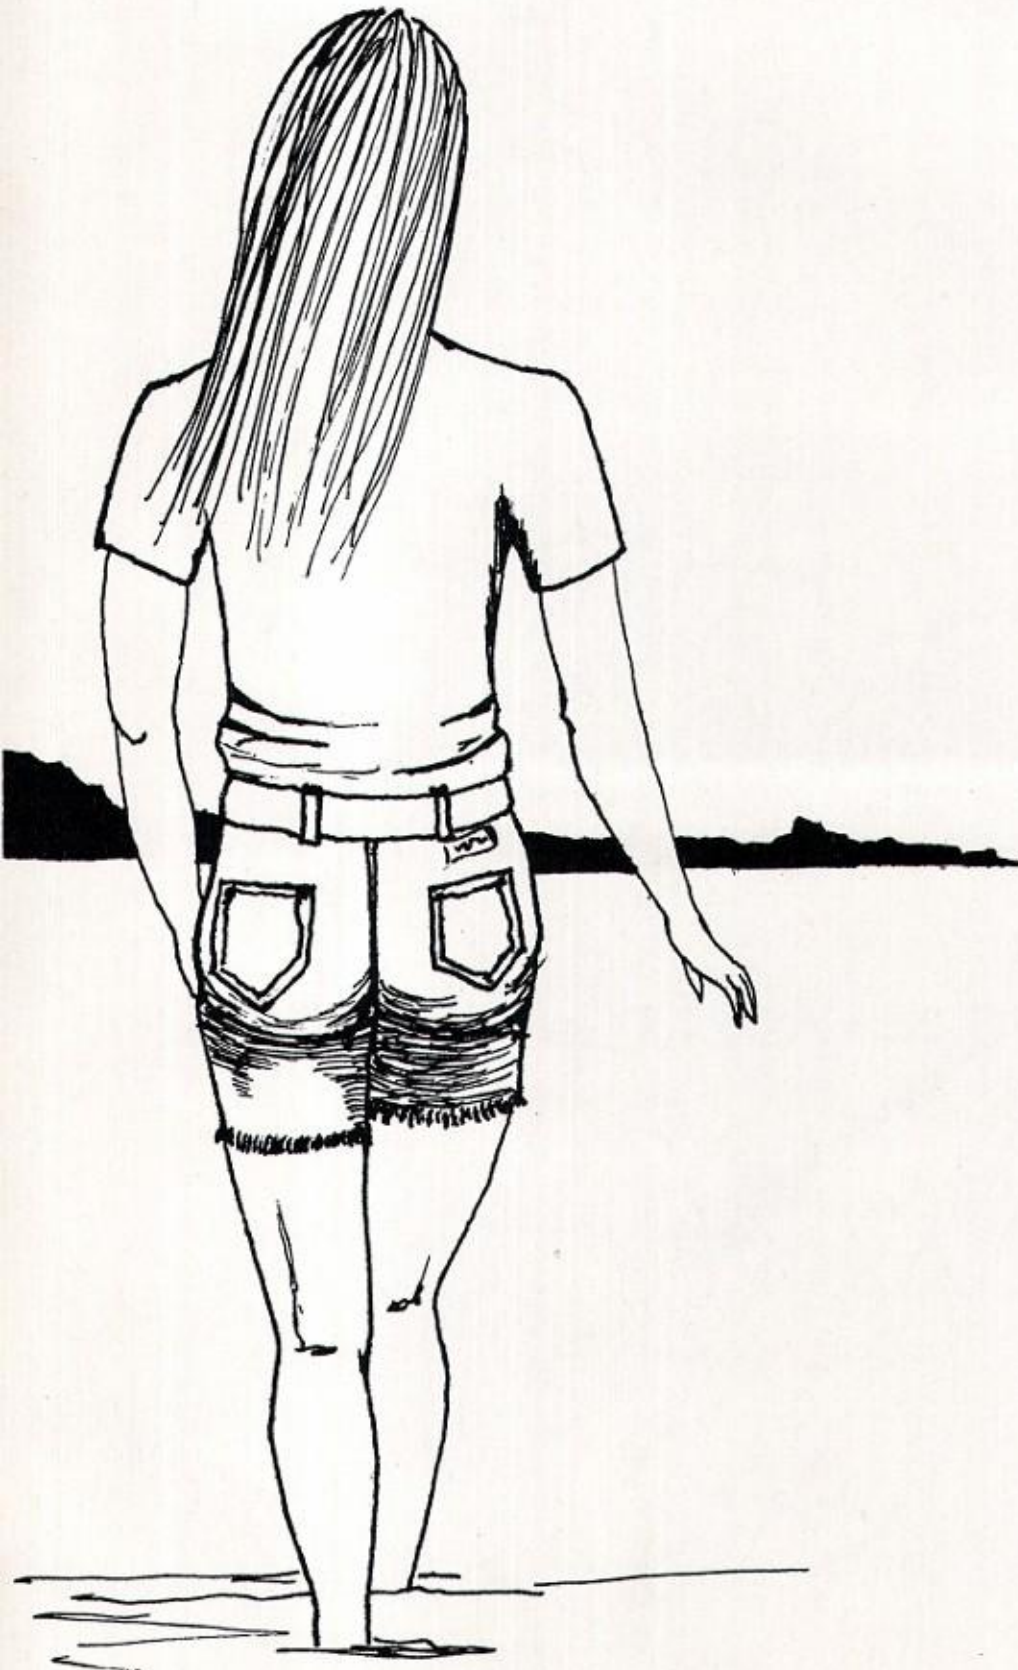

Daryl Wiltsie

Loneliness Is . . .

- A single daisy growing wild in a field of tall grass.
- An empty desert with only a few cacti growing here or there.
- A dark, silent night with only one star that can be seen.
- The waves crashing against the rocks making music no one hears.
- A leafless tree in that barren time between fall and winter.
- A deserted bird's nest blowing aimlessly in the wind.
- Me, sitting here, writing this, and thinking of you.

You Walk Alone

You walk along the streets,
Or through an alley way.
You walk along the beaches,
With the sand beneath your feet.

You walk the towns and cities,
And wander from place to place.
But yet you walk alone,
With no one at your side.

The one you cared the most about,
The one you really loved,
The one that said;
"I'll never leave you hun."

Now all the lights are turned down low,
And will never light again.
For the one you loved has come and gone,
And now you walk alone.

To A Teacher, To A Friend, To You

To a teacher-
This is what I write-

He tried to keep fourth bell
From raising hell.
He never succeeded.
He was only defeated.

There was Becky- proud and short
And Robin- what a sport.
And Darick- with pizza on mind
And good old Dugan- basement time.

But despite the things we did
And the teacher's book we hid.
And the headaches we gave
We always tried to behave!

On the fourth of September
Do you remember?
That's when we first met
What a sweat.

You did more than teach
You did more than preach.
You made us learn
But on your term.

You taught-
We bought-
You cared-
We feared-

To a friend-
This is what I write-

In the one before I constantly rhymed

But not this time.

I write on this paper of white
To tell the story of you.
By the way I saw it
By the way I know it.

You were a teacher and a friend
Never one or the other.
You honestly cared
About the students you taught.

You were willing to give of your time
To someone who needed it.
You never said no
To a question of help.

You were kind and polite
Always wanting to help.
You made learning fun
More than chewing gum.

To you-
This is what I write-

I write this poem to you
And hope you will understand.
For all that I write is true
It will only turn you red, not blue.

What I'm really trying to say- is this You're the first of your race
And the first to first base
And you never failed to make a homerun.

"Christmas Celebration"

Snowflakes softly sailing silently to earth,
Touching mountains with icy fingers,
Marking the beginning of the Christmas season.

People hustle-bustling through shopping centers
Like five o'clock thruway traffic
Or buzzing bees at a honey comb.

Fireflies decorate ornament covered fake trees,
Blinking from beneath the tinsel,
Representing false symbols of Christmas.

Christ didn't climb down from His cross yet;
Annual trips to church are made,
And joy is spelled P-R-E-S-E-N-T-S.

Snowflakes softly sailing silently to earth
To celebrate another bogus Christmas.

The Truck Driver

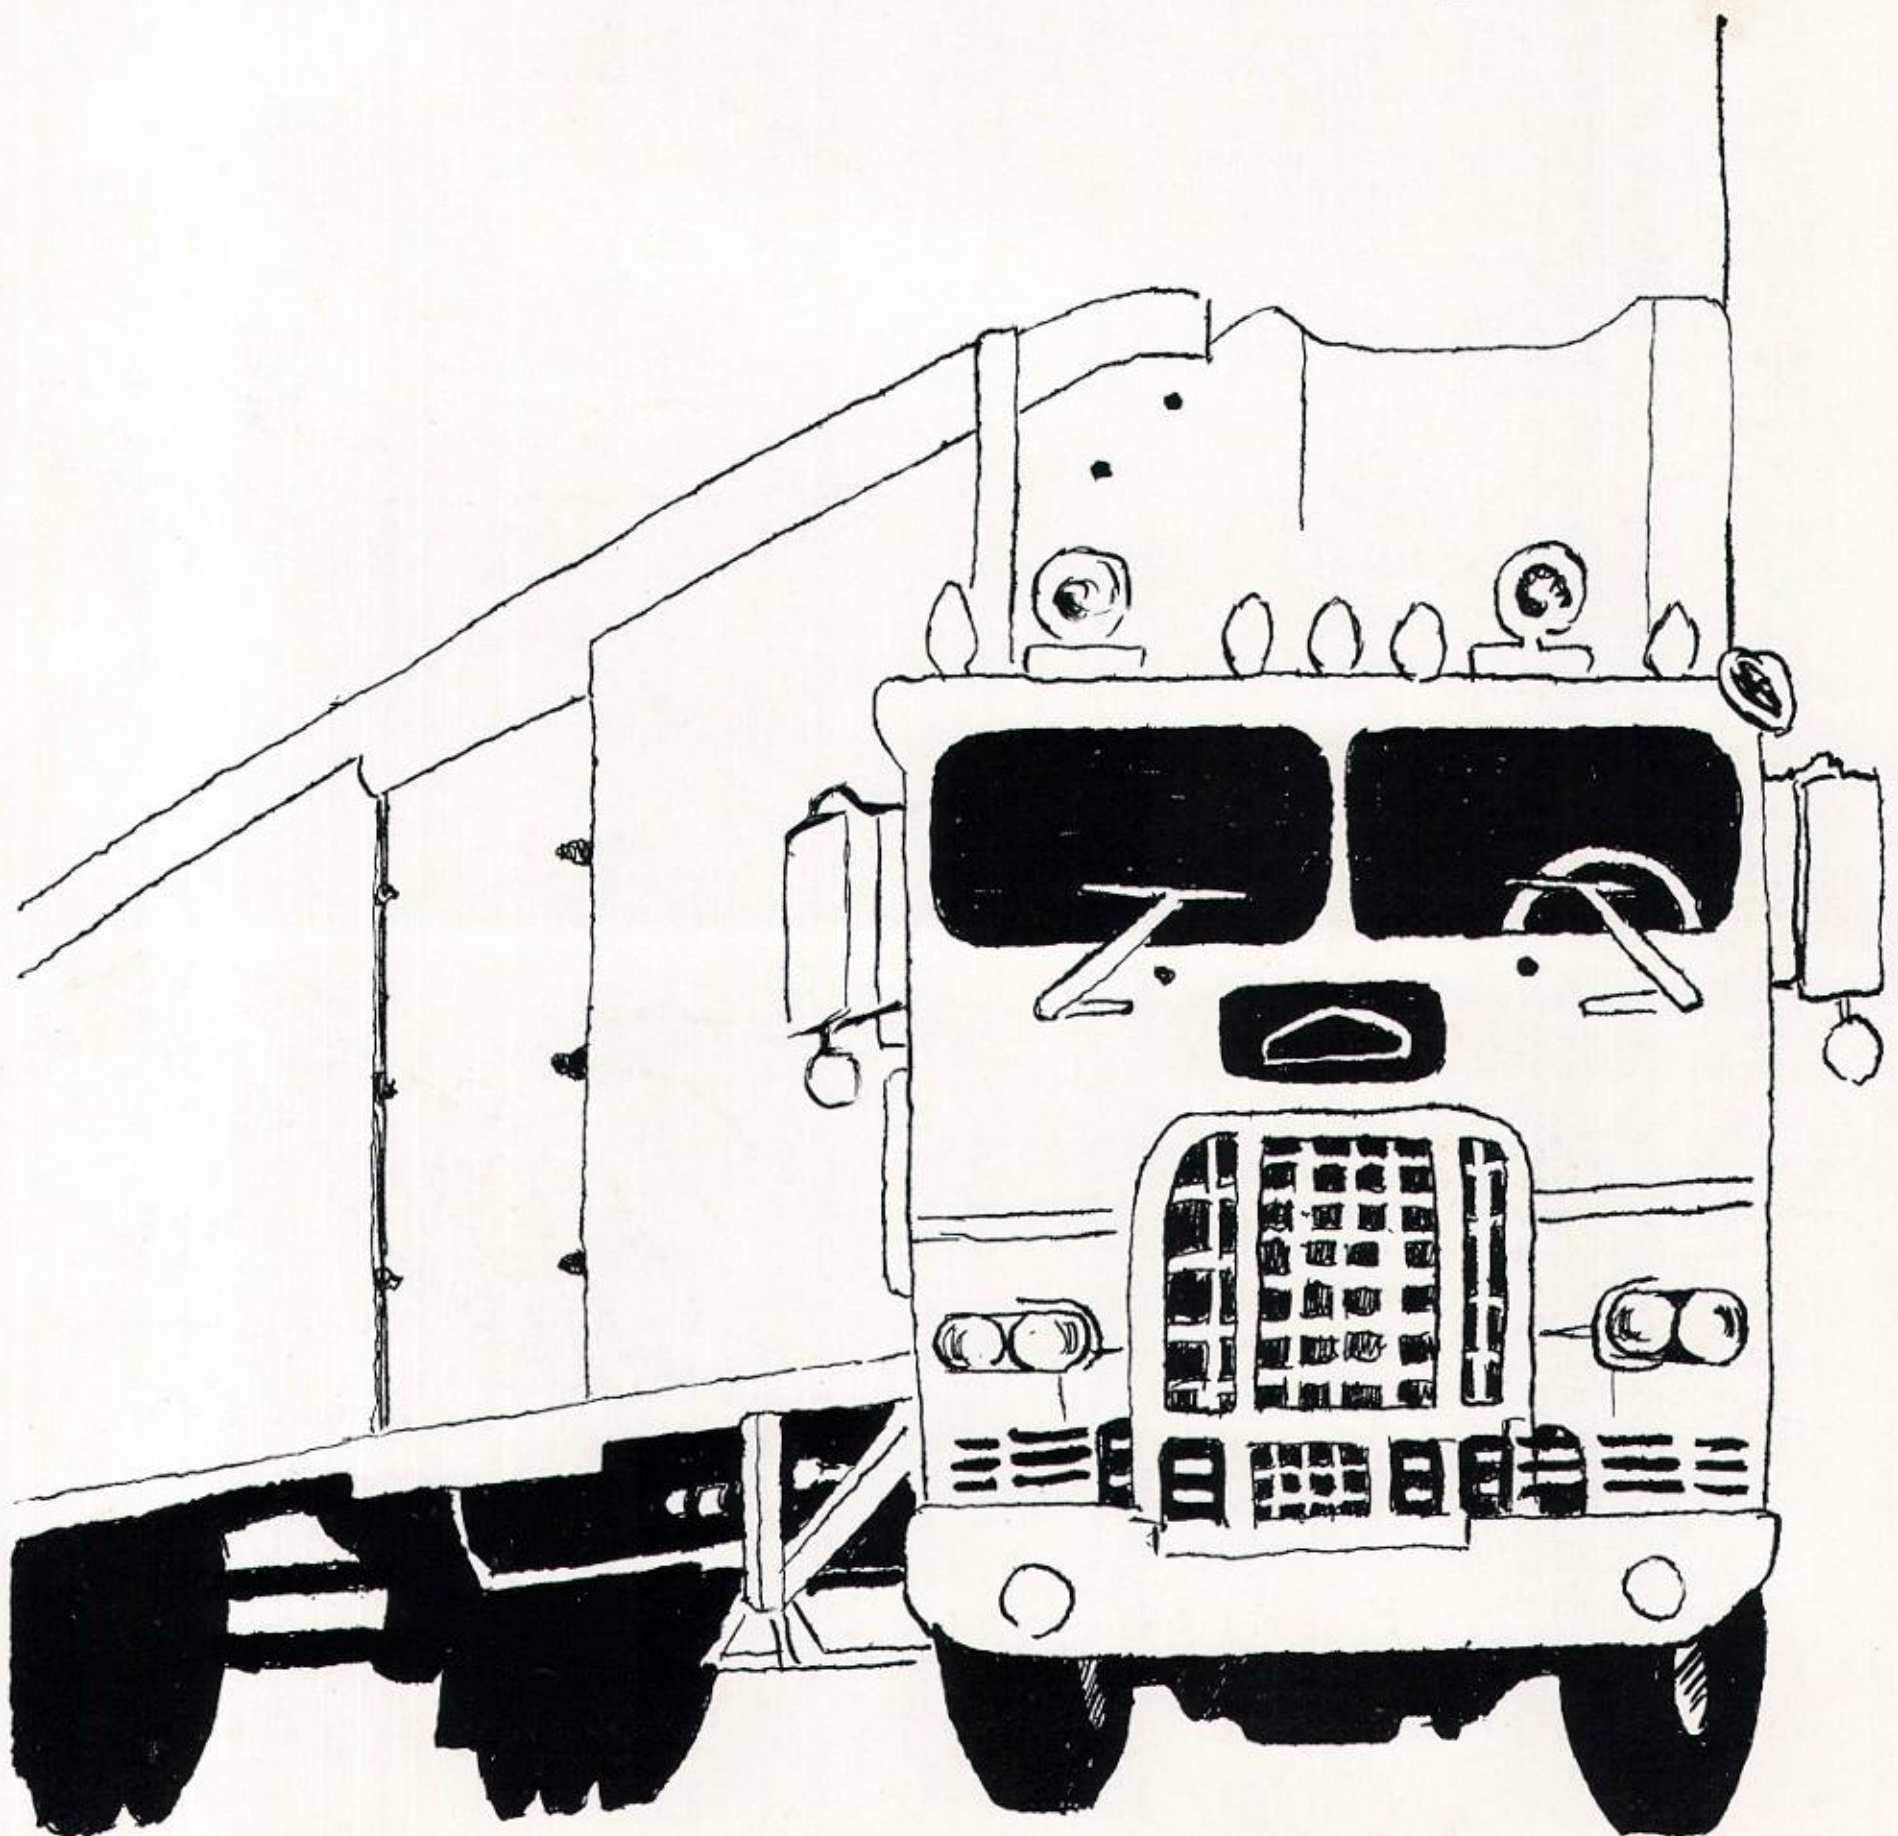

Without him there would be no steel to make the machines . . . No gasoline to run the nation's automobiles.

No concrete to build the highways . . . No merchandise to spin the wheels of trade . . . He is gentle enough to let a twelve-ounce kitten cross the road . . . He likes straight highways . . . Black-haired waitresses . . . Slot machines that pay off . . . Friendly cops . . .

Laughing, proud of his day's work he looks out of his bunk and thinks of the long highway ahead . . . He lives by the code of the road . . .

And passes no man who needs a helping hand . . . I'm proud of truck drivers . . . Because he's my father, a proud man with 22 years of highway behind him, a man who would be happy to hear America say, "Congratulations truck drivers, you've done a great job."

Gymnastics

Gymnastics is a flippy sport.
 With six different events for you to support.
 There's high bar, tumbling, paralell bars,
 and rings, and all sorts of crazy things.
 And trampoline is a extra treat.
 That you see only in a special meet.
 So come on over, pay a buck,
 and wish us gymnasts lots of luck.

The Actresses and/or Actors

"An outstretched hand goes farther than a tightly clenched fist."

Debbie Hamer

Lights and illusions of many descriptions;
dizzily dancing, swirling and twirling,
blended together and packaged as one.

Sideshows and deceptions all about;
Fakes and frauds whirling throughout;
Painted faces and memorized acts;
They travel together as one big pack.

"Put yourself in someone else's place,"
that's what they do;
They rehearsed very hard just to entertain you.

"To be at peace in your own mind, you must first be at peace with others."

Debbie Hamer

"There are so many empty places in our hearts, that if we tried to fill them all,
there would still be space."

deaf, childish to those who are blind, but it is music to those who feel."

Debbie Hamer

"Friendship without self-interest is one of the rare and beautiful things of life."

They Who Look Upon the World

It grew . . .
and moved, and lived and created, and loved and
bore new ones of its kind.
and she smiled.

It grew . . .
and became taller, and larger, and became intelligent
and planted.
and she smiled.

It grew . . .
and prospered, and invented, and rolled, and built with strength of body, and learned to sail up on the sea.
and she smiled.

It grew . . .
and built things to help build, and argued among themselves for what they had made, and labored for.
and she still smiled.

It grew . . .
and made things for protection from those it fought, and built walls to keep it's belongings safe
and she did not frown . . .

and it grew
and killed those it loved and those it bore to carry on, and built taller and greater walls, and larger things of protection, to kill more of its kind.
and she still did not frown.

and it grew
and divided the planted field for selfishness, and divided its self by different ways of life, one here, one there, and the one on one side hated the one on the other. and even fought to divide what was the same.
but she did not cry.
and it still grew

and fought for field and forest, and when it left, it left nothing. It flocked in groups and killed to protect the weaker that it itself was destroying, and the sky grew dark within the day, and the sea on which it had sailed grew dark also, into black sickness, and it still did not stop.

and she cried.
and it still grew
higher and larger and destroyed past for future, and reached for more land and deserted and left nothing, and turned grass to stone and field to the sky and destroyed thousands with a glance.

and she cried.
and it did not grow
and through the darkness it began to fall dead upon its possessions it had cherished, and another took them and it also fell to the ground, that was dead, no longer alive like the things it had created.

her tears stopped.
and it died
and the field covered the stone, and the walls tumbled to the ground, and the divisions were no longer, for those who had made them were no longer. and the sky shone blue again. and the sea washed the shore gleaming white, and gulls sang in the sunny sky. and fish swam in the water and jumped on the waves. and the field grew tall and the forest thick, and the creatures ran free and lived together without fear, and the walls were no more and the rain was good and clean to drink.

and she laughed with happiness and she looked down upon the things that had been and were now and she knew that they were too intelligent to live happy, and not intelligent enough to live without deceit, for only man is destined to hate.
and she was content.

Memories

As time and I go along,
I slowly sing my silent song;
Of memories we left behind,
Imbedded in our thought-filled minds.
Memories of high school days,
And of our careless, carefree ways.
We worked, we laughed, we had our fun,
While time was lost by everyone.
The friends we gained, and friends we lost,
Have melted our from our lives like frost.
In our future lies our past,
Our memories will always last.

Peter Christie

"Touched"

I am crazy, I'm insane,
With my memories accept my pain,
I am Santa, beard and all,
I am Egor, ten feet tall.
I am Satan, your desires,
Let your soul join with my fires
Come with me,
And face the world,
And believe in the beauty,
that everyone else won't try to see anymore.

"A smile is an expression of your inner-most self, trying to get out and say 'I love you'."

School

is a nice place
to go to
if you don't mind classes
not always being exciting
if you don't mind
a touch of favoritism
now and then
just when everything is fine
because even the brownies
don't win
all the time.

School

is a nice place
to go to
if you don't mind kids being left out all of the time
or maybe only laughed at some of the time
which isn't half so bad
if it isn't you

Oh School

is a nice place
to go to
if you don't mind pretty "zeros"
in the higher places or an F or two in your upturned faces
or Such other improprieties
as our "class" minded society is prey to
with its "Jocks"
and "Burn-Outs"
and "Motor Heads"
and "Goody two shoes"
and its teachers and principals
and its other patrolmen
and its various conflicts and addicts'
and social clicks
that our fool flesh
is heir to

Yes, The School

is the best place of all
for a lot of such things
As making the sports scene
and making the marks scene
and making the trouble scene
and singing the Alma Mater
and skipping study halls
and passing test
and crying at lost games
and running down halls
and sharing homework and studying and even learning
And favorite Jeans
And no routines
and breaking rules
and making fools
of yourself

But, who cares?

and just generally having a riot

Yes, but then Right in the middle of it

Comes your Diploma!

Love in our hearts, not wanting to be apart

A Private World

There are those who cannot bear
to be alone.

But I can understand
the separations,
the long apartness,
the "where are yous"
of this my unfilled life
because

I have created
a private world
where we are never apart.
Beating always in my head
is your heart.

- Mr. Avery - Instructor

Restoration

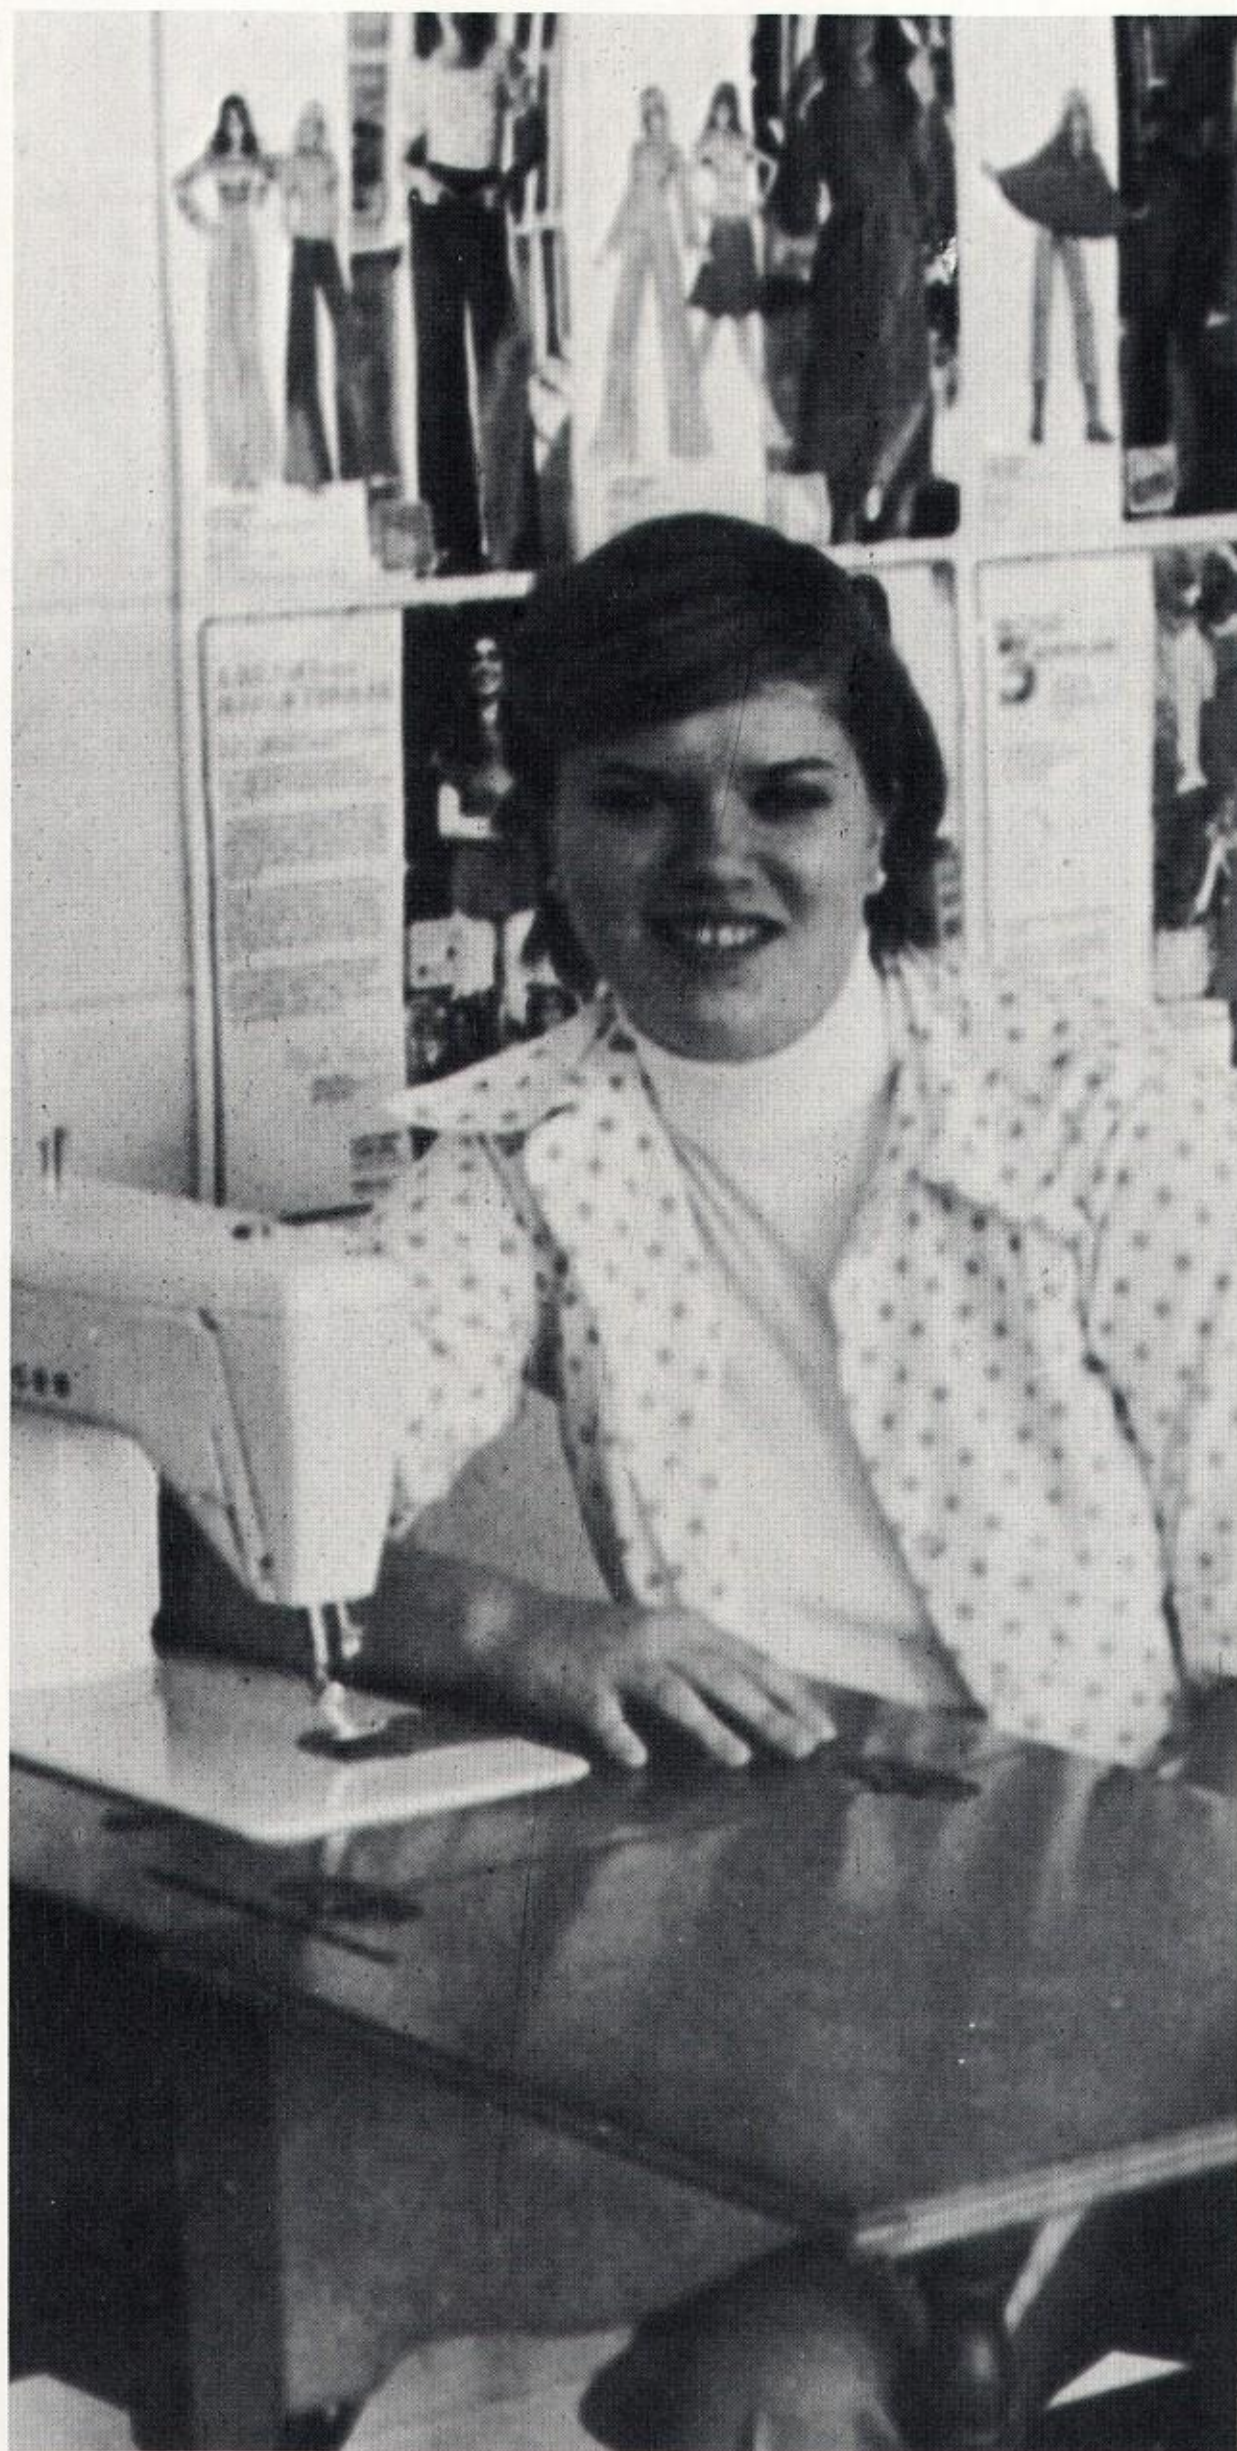

Chris Arnold receives Colonial Loom (1825-35) from the Cook family and restores it in Furniture Refinishing Class under the direction of Mr. Messerschmidt. Chris plans to use this beauty in her weaving career.

Wrestling Sectionals

The Class A tournament was the qualifier for the large schools to select which boys would go to the sectionals. To qualify you had to be in the top of each weight class. Fulton was 2nd in the class A tournament which involved 24 schools. Fulton sent 7 wrestlers to the sectionals, more than any other Class A school.

Betty Crocker Award

This year's winner is Elisa Zakariassin. She successfully completed and competed with other seniors in a homemaking written knowledge and attitude examination on December 2, 1975; sponsored by General Mills.

The Bicentennial Showcase; mental challenge of historical data

Through the efforts of Mr. John Zizzi (the history department chairman) our school has a Bicentennial Awareness Plan. Any person wishing to sign the "Zizzi Declaration" may read from selected works in the library and take a general knowledge test on the foundations and roots of the Declaration of Independence. Upon attaining a passing grade, one may sign the "Declaration" using Quill (brush) and Ink. In addition to this honor, each person receives a genuine Bicentennial Certificate acclaiming their historical prowess connected with the "Zizzi Declaration".

- (1) Mr. Zizzi bestows the certificate of merit upon Wanda Lanning, Kathy Kemmis, Coby O'Brien and Tom Neilson.
- (2) Mr. Mark Slosek, American Studies, congratulates additional Declaration winners Kim Seibers and Coby O'Brien.
- (3) Mr. Zizzi and Mr. Slosek congratulate Mr. Marturano for his efforts upon joining the Declaration family of signatures.

Mr. William Bower, Superintendent

Welcome Mr. Bower . . .

Mr. Bower is 50 years old, married with three children; Wayne - 29, Christine - 21, and Susan - 14. He has two grandchildren and has recently lived in Tupper Lake, N.Y. while serving as the Tupper Lake Superintendent of Schools.

Undergraduate work was accomplished at New Paltz State University and Hobart William Smith School located in Geneva, N.Y. He holds a BE degree from New Paltz and a MA degree from New York University. Mr. Bower also completed Navy V-12 training, Midshipman's School at Northwestern University and served as an Ensign in the USNR for 3 years during World War II.

He has taught Social Studies 7-9, has been an Elementary Principal K-6, held the position of a Director of Elementary Education K-6, and filled the post of a District Supervising Principal in New York State as well as in New Jersey before assuming the role of Superintendent of Schools which he held in Tupper Lake before his arrival in Fulton.

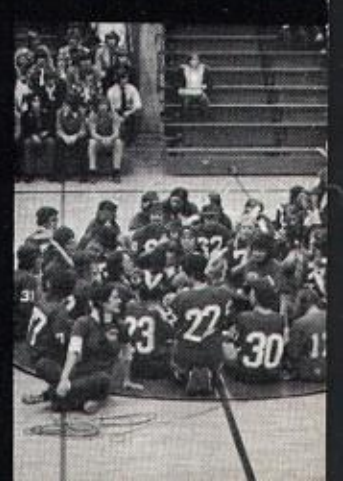

Seniors

The Senior Class of 1976 has really been working hard in making money toward their great Senior class trip which is really coming fast. The class has worked more like a class along with their Advisor, Mrs. Carlson; President, Mimi LaBoda; Vice-President, Gretchen Flick; Secretary, Nancy Galletta; and Treasurer, Sue Foley.

I Karen Abell leave my shyness to Ruth Bond with hopes, for the sake of others, she uses it.

I Lynne Allen, leave.

The AM Boces bus leaves Debbie Rich and Penny Parkust a bird feeder and cage in hope that they never get OUT.

I Ernie Avery leave my party pins, armbands & flags to the future NAZI of GRB to Miss Lori Prawl & Mr. Bill Speigle.

I DeEtte Barnes leave a peach to Ronnie Allen, Jim Savas, Kevin Vogt, Mike Ambuske, Marty Bateman, Mike Dings, Mike Beedy, and Randy Thompson so they don't forget what they've been for the past 3 years.

I Sheryl Berry leave Kim Smith, Chris Davidson, all my other cousins 5th and 7th bell lunch. And all the fun that we had. Remember Chris, not to shoot the food at the lunchlady.

I Chris Bevacqua leave to go far away & hope GRB kids will forever Party - On!

I Nanette Bonanno leave Peter Bonanno two whole solid years to enjoy high school with no one to check up on him.

I Liz Breault leave GRB to the NY State Prison Reform Commission.

I Cindy Carr leave the underclassmen the idea of being themselves.

Dick Chalifoux leaves hoping that the Raider Report will one day discover how to see your counselor.

I Doug Delaney leave all my talents to the highest bidder.

I Mike DeMore leave all the juniors the senior table they most desired.

I Patti Devendorf do hereby leave to Laurie Prall the promise of the rise of the Fourth Reich in the hopes that she can rule it with an iron hand as did our dear friend, the late, great, Adolf Hitler.

I Denise DiNardo leave Karen Johnston Angelo, hoping he will never "sit" on her!

I Valerie Downs leave Kathy Arnold a pair of suspenders to hold up her jock strap when it begins to slip.

I Donna Dunham leave Laurie Williams my motorcross abilities, my brother Mrs. Martin for Trig, the bathrooms & the park to anyone who has 6 study halls with 9th bell English, and Mr. O'Neil the hopes to find another girl to bring 35 spark plugs to be sandblasted.

I Mary Ann Dyer leave Kim Bennett 1 more year to watch all the cute guys wherever they may be, good luck & have fun in your senior year. Mary Dyer leaves anti-cardinal signs to any of Mr. Kanes students who know how to use them as I did not.

I Doug Fisher leave the World Cups to anyone who can fill them with their rocket foot.

I Gretchen Flick leave Randy Thompson a key to her house, so he can still feel free to come over when he can't find a ride home, and the spare bedroom so he doesn't have to sleep on the floor.

Sue Foley and Jody Merritt leave Debbie Rich and Penny Parkurst a muzzle for their mouth and a book of etiquette and a dictionary to further their vocabulary.

Sue Foley, leaves all the brownies she has in the office to her sister Trish and hopes she can get away with as much as she did.

I Deb Fowler leave to my sister Diane, Mr. McKeown in hopes she will raise as much hell as I did.

I Tammy Frawley, leave Brad Stevens my staring ability so he can stare at the guys too.

I Larry Goldfarb leave Mr. Keown a list of broken lab equipment and a hint where the bomb is hidden.

I Cheryl Halstead leave Mr. Abraham and Mr. Sansone to anyone who likes a sense of humor.

I Debbie Hamer leave Mr. Slosek a great big watermelon sherbet ice cream cone to last all next summer.

I Sharon Harris leave GRB with pleasure.

I Teresa Hayden leave wishing the best to Shelly and Eric Hayden, Bobby and Arlen Halstead, Rochell and Robbin Looker, Mary Salsbury, Tom March, Nickey Terzulli, and Craig Acker. Good Luck!!!

I Terri Heer leave my four years of work in the library to anyone foolish enough to take it.

I Mike Hogan leave Mr. Kane and Mr. Sohoski a bit of calypso, a frog, and a reminder that Uncle Dick is watching. Also a hearty SMS for both of them to enjoy while at Mimi's.

I Mike Jaquin leave my brother my skill in soccer and lacrosse so that he may be another Pele or Trav.

I Dave Johnson just leave.

I Lynne Johnson leave Sue Ballard "the gang" in hopes that someday she can break it up.

I Rhoda Kio leave High School with generally good feelings, and best wishes and hopes for all the upcoming underclassmen, especially Terry Zahler in hopes Terry will find that special something that H.S. has and never lose it.

I Mimi LaBoda leave Beth Allen and Kathy Arnold another year with a 13-year old who takes her time resting (!) and not playing basketball. Also who turned out the lights?

I Liz Liberti leave Kathy Arnold my shortstop position on the Girls Softball team with the hopes that she can fill it as well as she thinks she can.

Liz Liberti and Caroline Pontante leave the girls who play on the Bowens corners softball team a book of How to have good sportsmanship.

I Shelley Mainstone leave Mark the task of protecting Tin from the girls.

I Sandy Mansfield leave my sister Joann Kramarz my smelly gymsuit with my worn sneakers.

I B.J. McKnight leave to Thumper & McCarty applications for Fulton's Hoagy Club only if they pass their Hoagy physicals.

I Susie McNulty leave Gretchen Flick my one and only bra that I thought fit me, but it seems that she had to borrow it at practice, she needs it a little more than I need it, so she can have it.

I Paula Merrifield leave Kim Weske all my shirts and anything else so she can never say she has nothing to wear.

I Jody Merritt leave Jerry MacDonald, Keith Berry and Bill Vincent a new set of keys in hope they will find a car to steal in tri-lions parking lot.

I Sue Mirabito leave Maurine Caprin taking inventory, counting what she likes to count best!

I Cay Moore leave Mr. Varachi to anyone who can stand the smell of fried peppers and onions.

We, Bill Morrell & Dean Miner leave Tim Taylor & Jody Potonack their pictures in their lockers so they could have the thrills we had with them.

I Michele Morton, Da, B.J. leave all the underclassmen thing that fly high in the sky.

I Mr. Kurt Messerschmidt leave Captain Gordon and Wiloway Crumpton the first place positions on the Tennis Team and Carl Preske as your beloved and devoted coach. May you "ace" your way through the season.

I Kurt Messerschmidt expose Erin's Sally's and Chris' view as Tom Johnston.

I Billie Ann Natoli leave this school in hopes that someone will be able to change things.

I Larry Ostness, hereby leave my hair to the science department for further observation.

I Ed Patrick leave the job of goalie of the soccer and lacrosse teams to Andy Hogan or anyone else who can take the bruises.

I Nancy Petrie leave Women's lib to any one who wants it because I prefer the old fashioned ways.

I, Sue Quade, leave Melinda Moore three more years of high school in which to have as many parties as we did and get away with every single one.

I Pat Rebeor leave my little brother John and little friends to have the chance to be big in school to the new freshmen.

I Sandy Reilly leave hoping that my two younger brothers and sister have as much fun as I did and are more successful.

Sandy Reilly, Jody Merritt and Ro. O'Brien leave Bill Vincent all the lockers at G. Ray Bodley hoping he will have enough room for all his junk.

I Becky Reynolds leave all my brownie points from the office to any person who thinks they can put up working with Mrs. Cavone as long as I did.

I Cindy Rose leave Mr. Sohoski to all the psychology students who has a good mind to think!!! P.S. Psychology is really called BRAIN POWER!!!

I Arlene Roth leave Debbie Kennedy two more years of getting up at 6:30 to catch the bus.

I Lynn Rowlee leave the best of luck to all the underclassmen who have to make it in the years to come. YOU'LL NEED IT!!! I also leave Mr. Sohoski to all the students who think they are smart enough to out-wit him in psych class.

I Cathy Rusaw leave Carol Rusaw those cold mornings in gym class.

I Terry Sarcone leave Lynda Nothrup every boy that she can handle.

I Darlene Savage leave Mr. McKeown 5 broken test tubes, scales that don't work the elements and A.P. Chemistry.

The Senior Class leaves Lisa Eichmann's "parakeets" sitting on the dresser waiting for M.S.

The Senior Girls leave Tammy Dlugozima one bottle of beer in hopes that Buske is around.

The Senior girls leave Liz Weske here, to give Tina Viscome, Tammy Dlugozima, Robin Andrews a little competition.

I Mary Shortsleeve leave G.R.B. to the dogs and may it be in the hands of the Lord.

I Kim Smith leave "Kimmer" Weske maine and kissing cousins and to Kelly 3 years at the ball park.

I Bonnie Sotherden leaves her brother Jonny her spot in Mrs. Hazeltines room.

I Kathy Sperbeck leave this school in a straight jacket to attend Marcy Hospital to further my education knowing that the insane things I did will continue.

Wendy Stone leaves to calmly search for the good things in life.

I Bonnie Taft leave knowing I won't be missed.

I Harold Terranova leave to Mr. O'Neal anyone who is stupid enough to stick their hand in a cylinder of wet plaster for 20 minutes. Then try to get it out!

Terri, Lou Anne, and Wendy leave Joey Wilson to all of the girls at G.R.B. so that he may forever get piggy banks & kisses for his birthday.

I Jamie Terzulli leave his phenomenal attendance record to Charlene McClullen in hopes that she can match it and still make it through 4 yrs.

I Steve Thompson . . .

I Carol VanNostrand leave Jean VanNostrand all the brownie points she can get.

I Michele VanWie leave next three years in hope that Terri Tyler does not ever get stuck with Mr. Ottman for any reason at all.

I Debbie Wallace leave Mr. Avery any girl who can act as the Yearbook's Secretary and put up with the crazy, but great advisor.

Liz Weske leaves one tube of "Ultra Bright" to her sister Marg so when her friends say "How's Your love life?" She won't have to say "What's a love life?"

I Barbara Wooding leave Lisa Scerbo all the gym ball machines and all the boys we've followed hoping she'll find someone else as crazy as she is. I leave Lisa with Rick, Tim, Danny, Jay, Kevin and many other to dream about.

I Elisa Zakariassen leave to Dianne Gick the senior table in hopes that she can sit there as many times as I have!

Why Not?

John, I just imagined you
and it has been nice to raise all the --- that you know we did. I am sure that I see you sometime again. Good luck in college next year and to be too overcome by college. I hope they have good electronics courses
then perhaps you could finally make a dog repeller!

Andy

John, friend
You're a good person.
and a smart person.
for your friendship. Thanks
get a lot of enjoyment out of life.
Hal

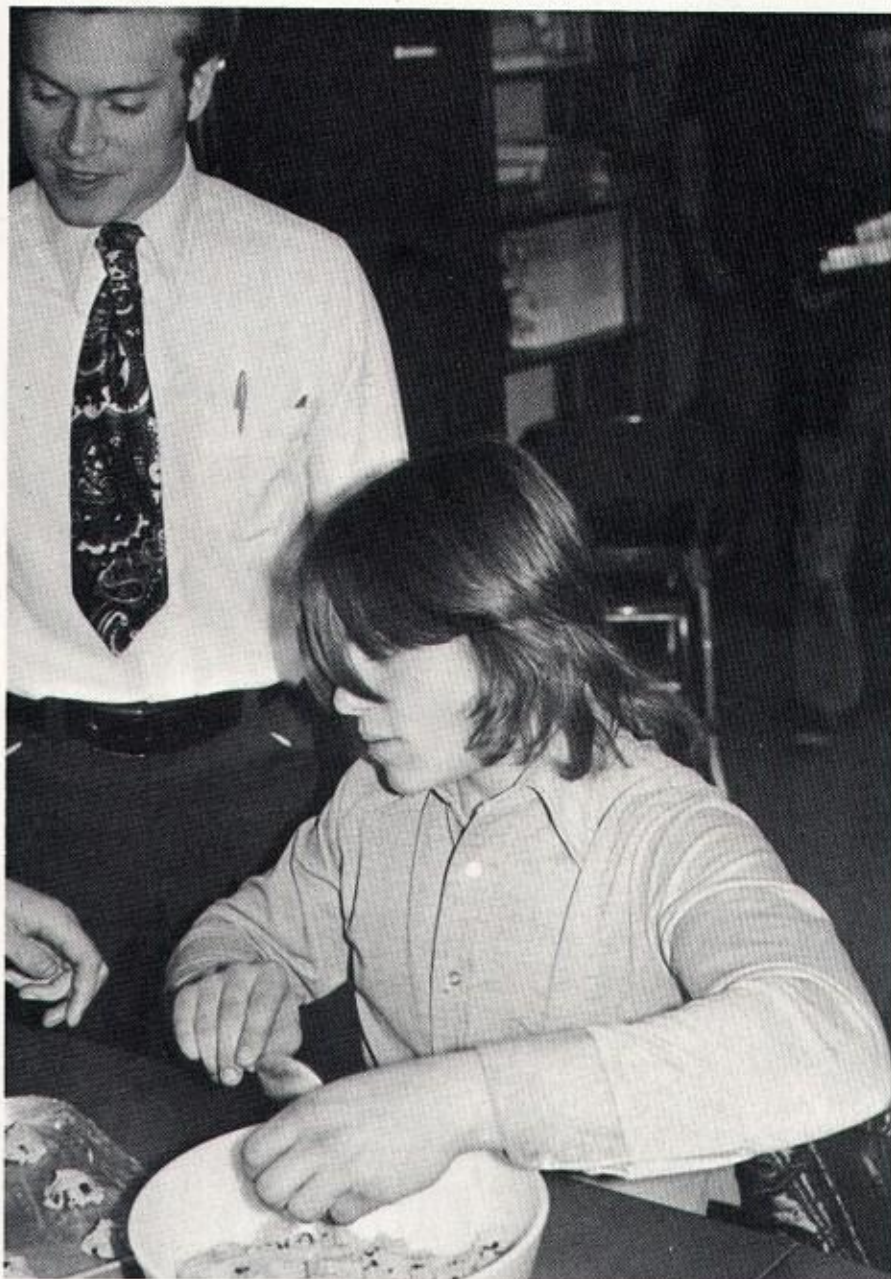

John,
English has been a riot. Glad to have ya in the same class. Congrats to both
of us for getting this far. Take it easy & good luck in all
you do.

Love,
Wendy

A.F.S.

Nanny Sahirdjan is this year's foreign exchange student from Bandung West Java in the country of Indonesia. She is staying with the Charles Barnes family.

Since she has been here, Nanny has participated on the girls' Field Hockey and Basketball teams.

When she returns to Indonesia, Nanny plans to attend college for five years to pursue a career in medicine or biology.

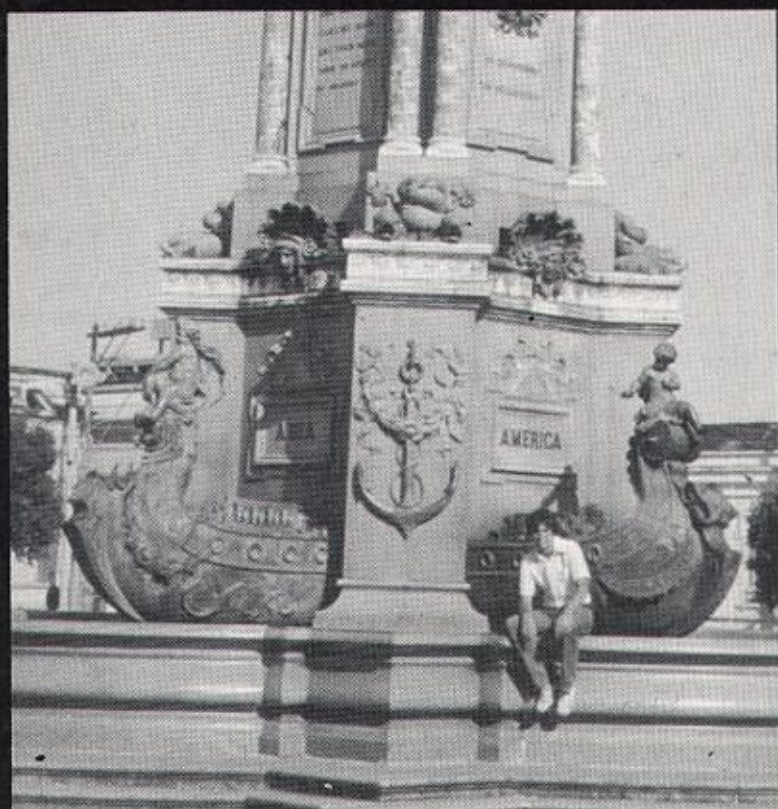

The American Field Service Representative from the Class of '76 was Dick Chalifoux.

Dick spent July and August of 1975 in Manaus, Amazonas located in the country of Brazil. Manaus is a free port situated near the jungle on the Amazon River and is a city of approximately 600,000 inhabitants.

He lived with the Atlas Bacellar Family under the A.F.S. program and had three sisters (Waldiva-15, Aldiva-16, and Ghislaine-19) and one brother (Atlas-17) along with his parents Atlas Sr., a government journalist, and Waldiva, a college secretary.

During his stay, Dick practiced native customs and lived a Brazilian way of life. He learned a great deal of Portuguese, the national language of Brazil, and became a pretty good volleyball and soccer player while abroad last summer.

"Quality Not Quantity.."

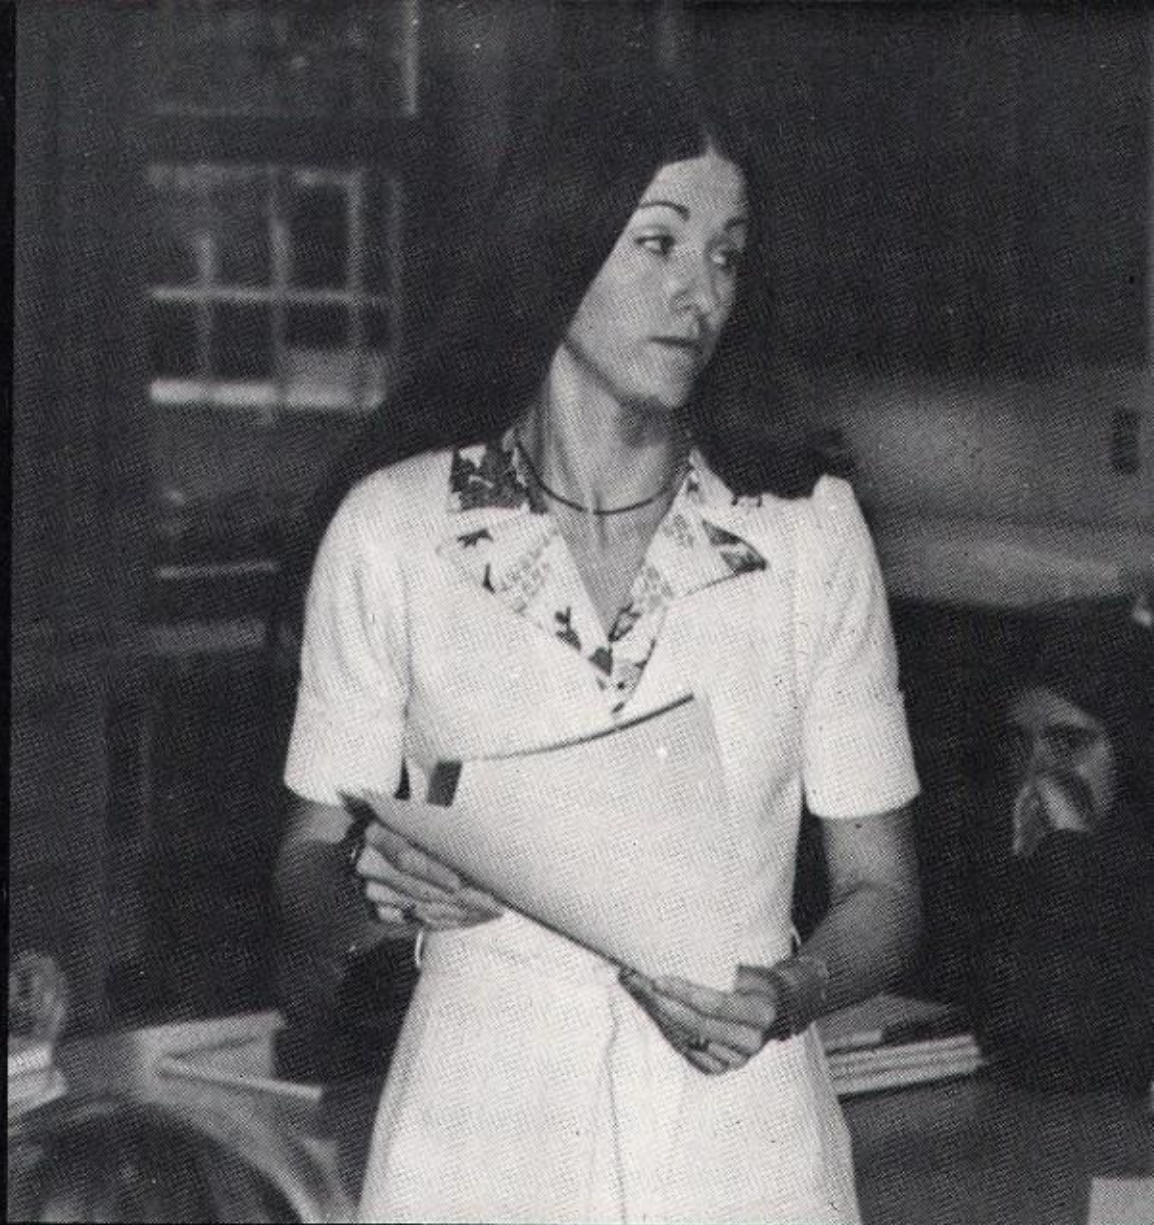

Industrial Arts

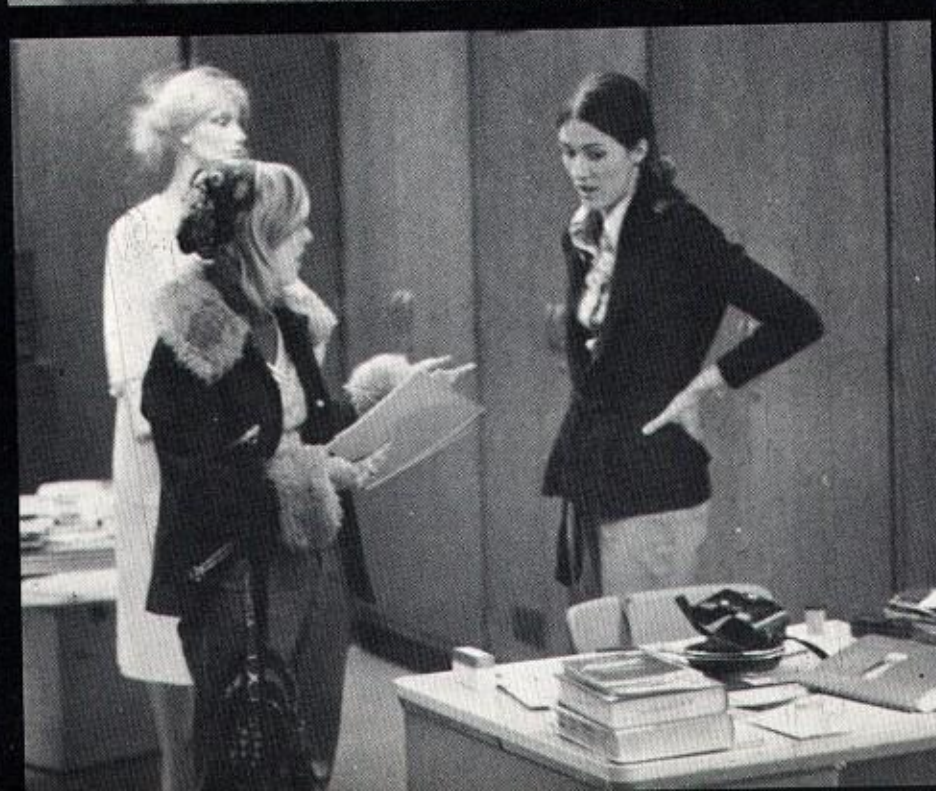

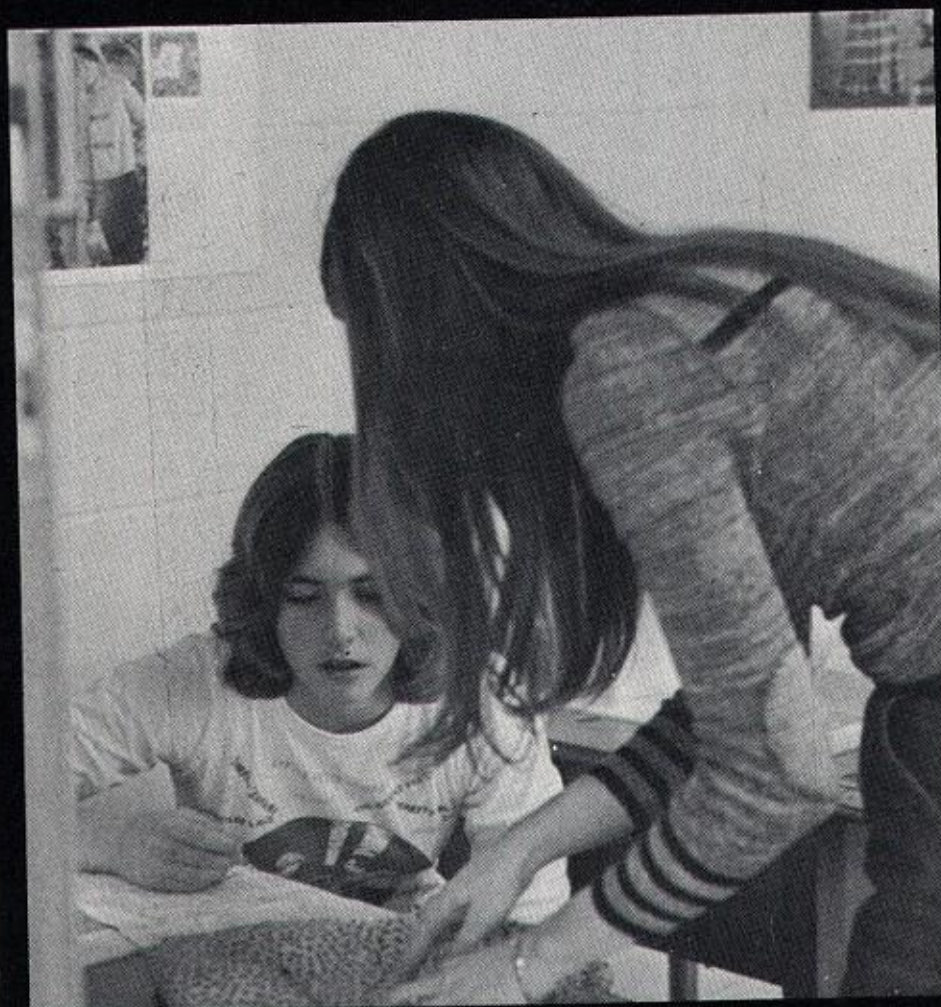

Homemaking

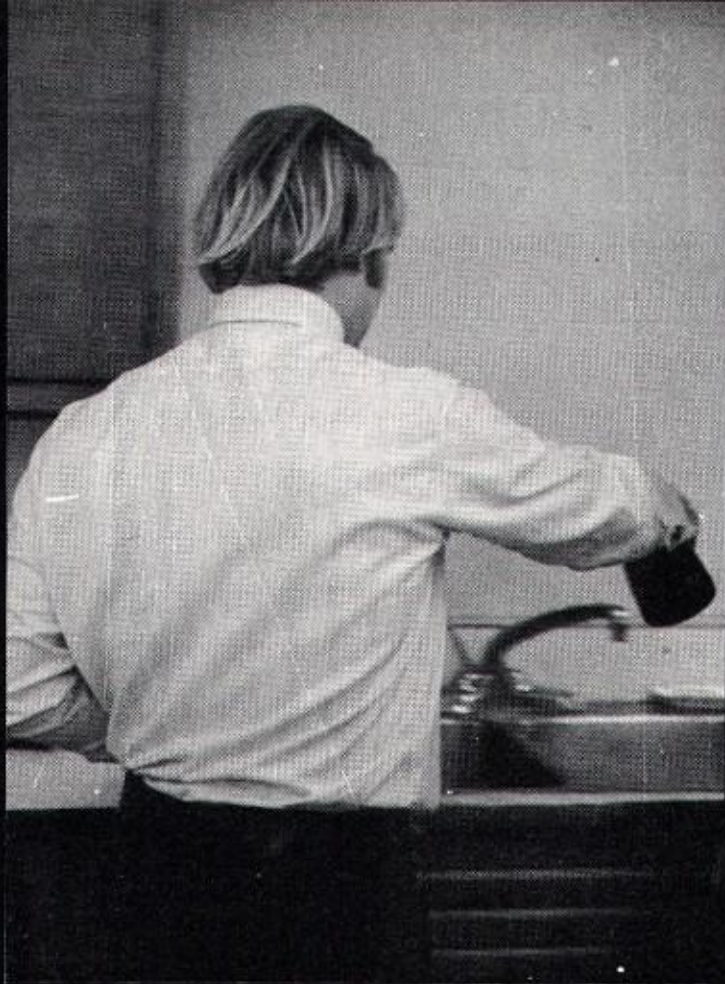

The art of homemaking is an important experience for anyone who is interested in learning basic home management skills. Mrs. Crist is the new teacher for this class.

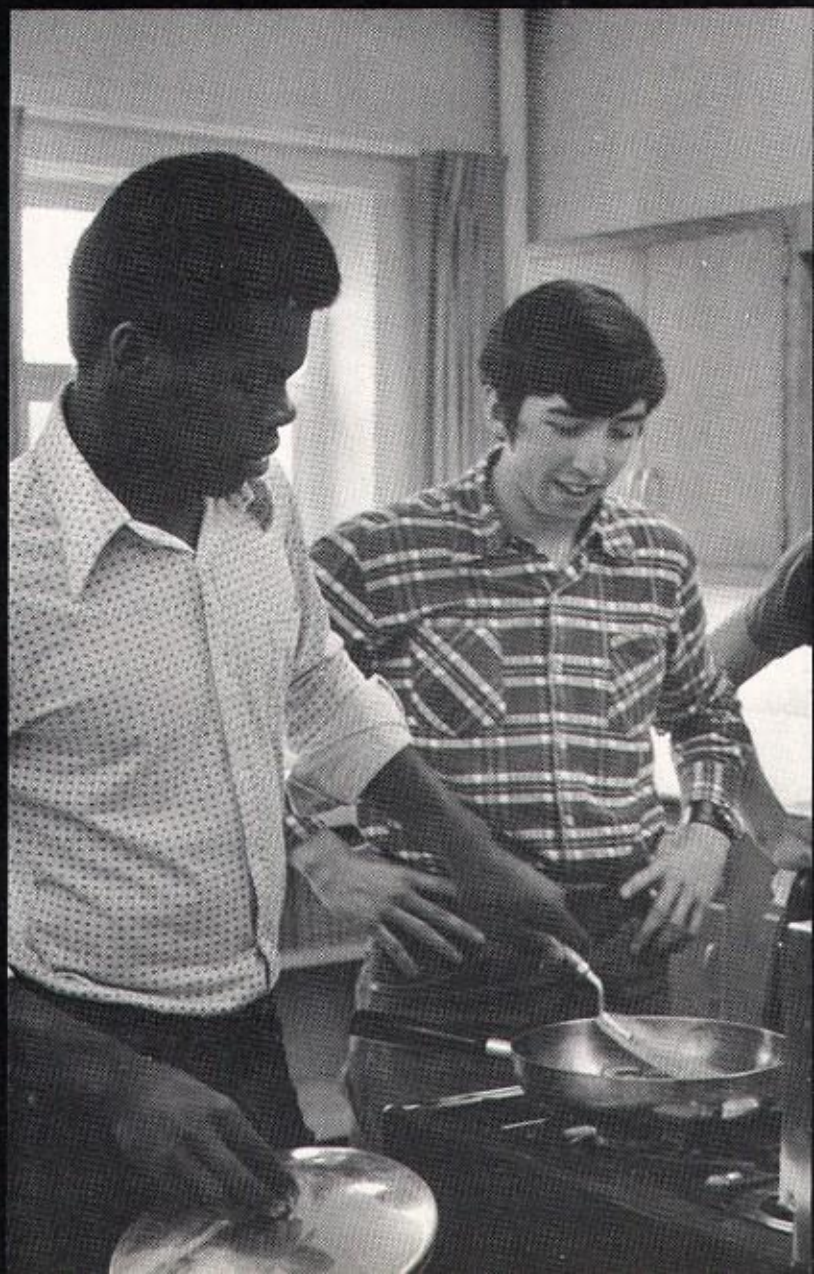

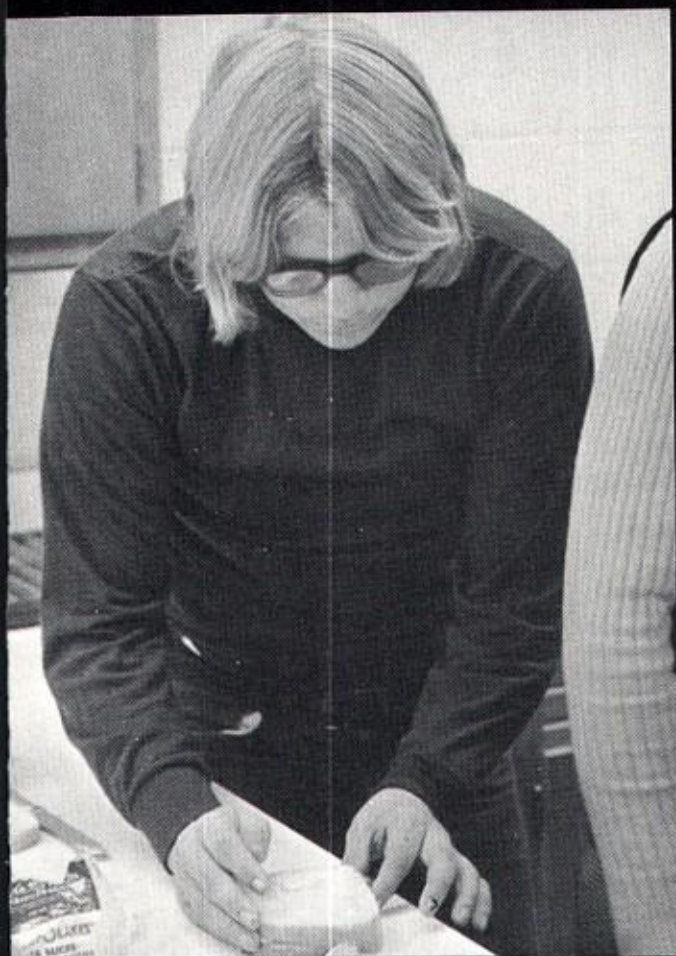

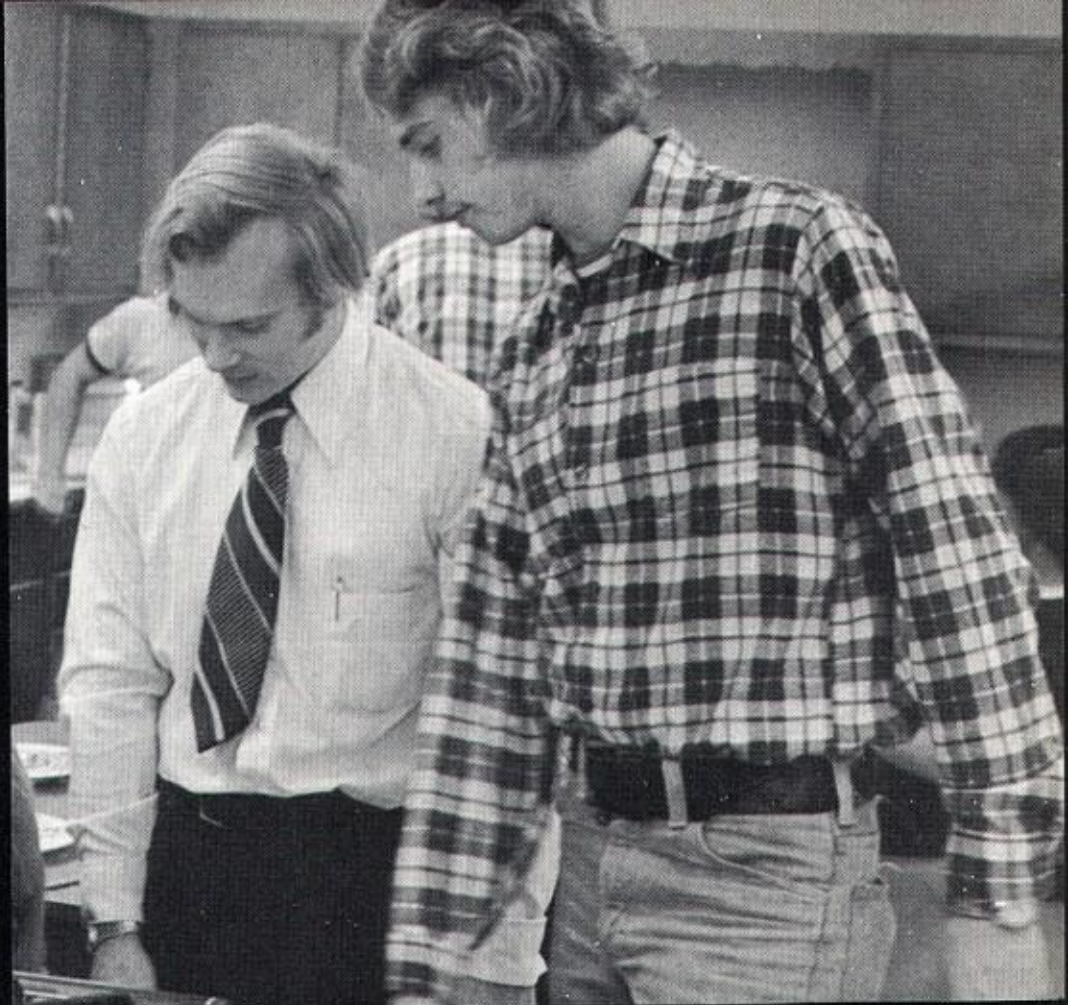

Bachelor Living

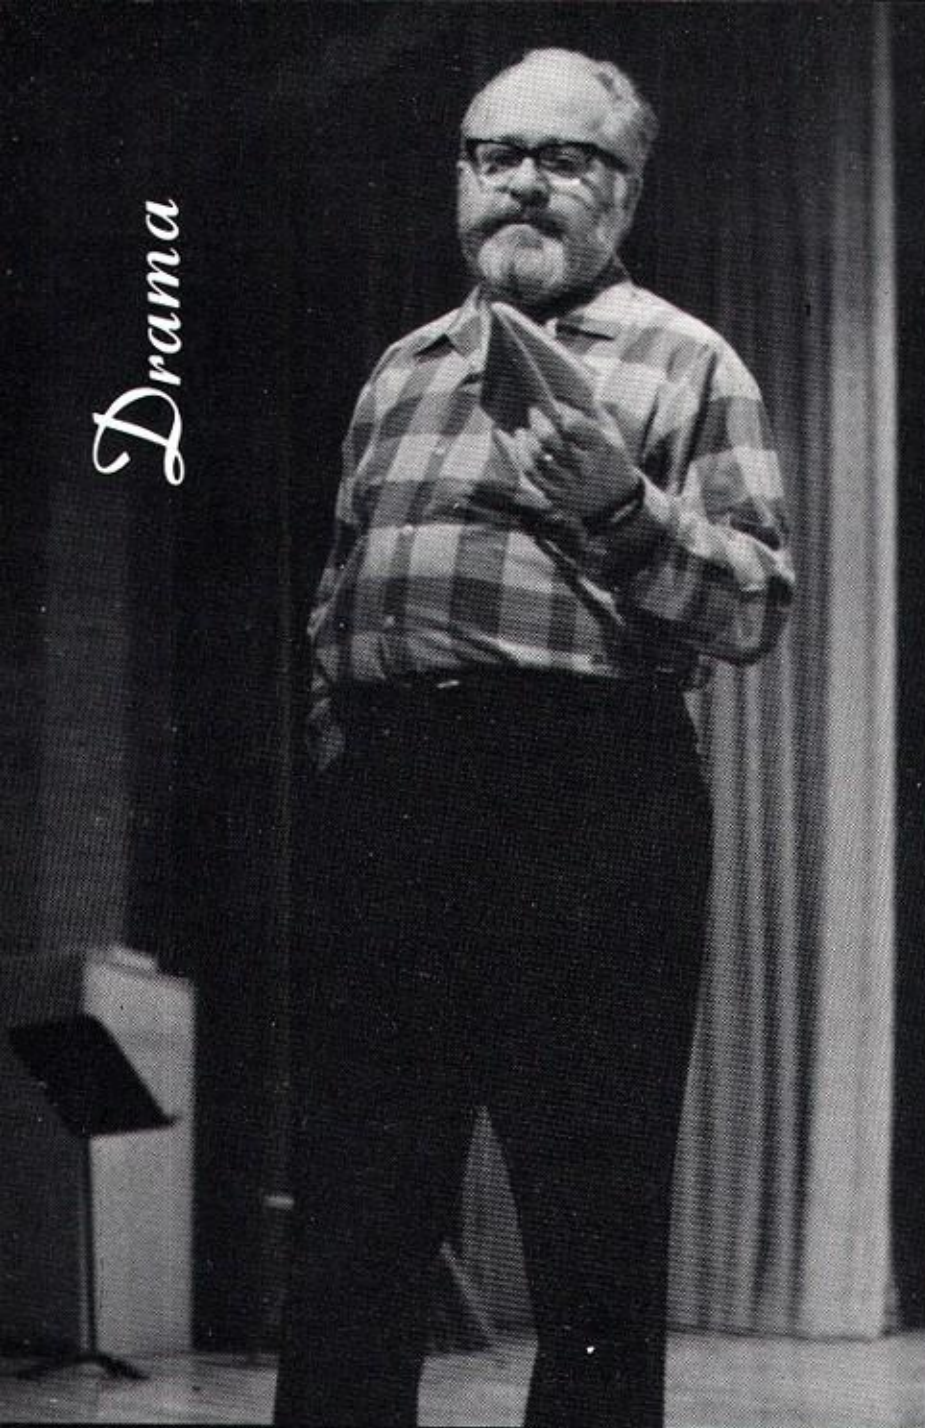

Under the Supervision of Mr. Nylen, all the future bachelor homemakers get together for bachelor living class and try to improve their skills by making grilled cheese and pancakes. Notice Mr. Nylen never eats any of them?

Drama

Each year, under the direction of Mr. Quirk, all of the up and coming actors and actresses of G. Ray rehearse to perform various plays throughout the school year.

Prom Song

There is a lady who is sure all that glitters is gold and she's buying a stairway to heaven, and when she gets there she knows If the stores are closed, with a word she can get what she came for

There's a sign on the wall, but she wants to be sure, cause you know sometimes words have two meanings. In a tree by the brook there's a songbird who sings sometimes all of our thoughts are misgiven.

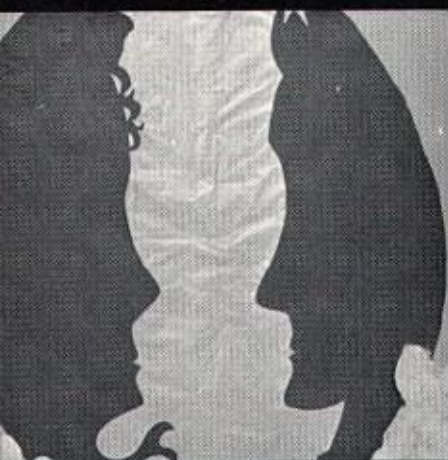

There's a feeling I get when I look to the west, and my spirit is crying for leaving. In my thoughts I have seen rings of smoke through the trees and the voices of those who stand looking and it's whispered that soon if we all call the tune then the piper will lead us to reason and a new day will dawn for those who stand long and the forests will echo with laughter And it makes my wonder

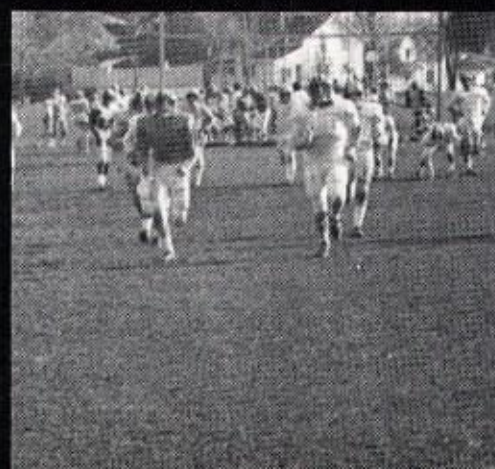

If there's a bustle in your hedgerow don't be alarmed now It's just a spring clean for the May Queen Yes there are two paths you can go by but in the long run, There's still time to change the road you're on.

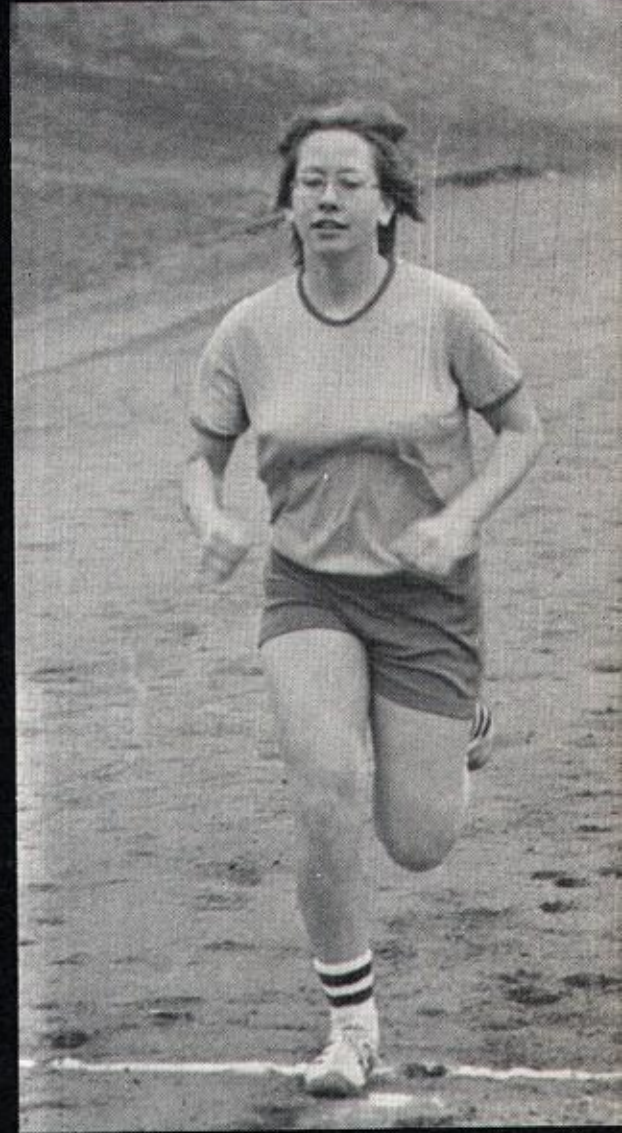

Your head is humming and it won't go in case you don't know the piper's calling you to join him Dear Lady can you hear the wind blow and did you know your stairway lies on the whispering wind

And as we wind on the road our shadows taller than our soul there walks a lady we all know who shines white light and wants to show, how everything still turns to gold. And if you listen very hard the tune will come to you at last when all are one and one is all to be a rock and not to roll.

OUR TEAM WAS!!!

A team works together

To reach a certain goal

Everyone does their share

To make the team a whole.

Winning and losing

Is like taking the bitter with the sweet

Sportsmanship and effort

Is what you need to be without a defeat.

A team has spirit

Energy and enthusiasm

A devoted coach

And a little bit of sarcasm.

The 1975 Green Wave

Had them all

That's why they went undefeated

They still stand tall.

Our coach was everything

She cared and shared

Taught us everything we knew

She dared and paired.

Tennis 1975

Was the best

Wishing them luck next year

Keep smilin' and winnin' and using Crest.

THANK YOU

ALMA MATER

On the banks of old Oswego
 Where Indian campfires gleam
 Now stands our ALMA MATER
 True guardian of the stream
 Tho our strength dwells ever with us
 We never stronger seem
 Than when we are defending
 Fulton's royal RED and GREEN!

John,

Good luck in school and whatever you do.
We have partied a lot together and have had a lot of fun. I hope you find a better job than working at Backers. Best of luck

Dave

John,
I'm glad we got to know each other even if it is not to well.
You're a great kid to hang out with in the summer
Dave Jackson

John,
you're a good kid and a nice guy to know.
I'm glad the two years
of thanks class are finally over.
Good luck in future plans.

Love, Karen Jackson

John,

to the most intelligent burnout I know-

It was a great time
getting out of Jo's class with you. Best of luck in the future, I'm sure you'll make a good E.E.

John,

Well, we have finally made it though school hard to believe, no more home work.
Have a fun summer and I will see you from time to time.

Kevin Miller

John, I'm glad you got to know your homeroom. You are a lot of fun to tease. I really hope you have many successes
and happiness wherever you go. I'm glad you're a really good friend of Andip! Good luck always.

Love,
Diane Engle

John,
Well, I'm not gonna
tell ya not to forget Driver Ed. cuz I know
ya won't, + remember our last night at the ponderosa.
Good luck next year + see ya over the summer.

Yave,
Karey

John & I only meet
know feel this year but you have a you that we next a nice long time
year. summer see

John,

I had a lot of fun going camping with you, you're a great kid and I'll remember
you for the fun we had together.
Good luck and I know
you'll get somewhere in life.
It might take a little longer than usually but you'll get there. Carely Lenz.
